

DENIES INJUNCTION AGAINST VILLAGE &amp; TRACK

HOMER J. BYRD
IN BAD PLANE
ACCIDENTMust Stay in Washington
Hospital; Vertebrae
Is Injured

Homer J. Byrd, of Arlington Heights, former Cook county commissioner, is in a Washington hospital where he was taken following a freak plane accident last Wednesday night in the Virginia mountains, 75 miles west of Washington. He was returning home with his attorney after being in conference with the U. S. patent office. The plane contained three passengers and two pilots. The latter were strapped in their seats; the others were not. Hitting an air pocket, the plane started to fall throwing the three passengers against the roof of the cabin. The pilot was soon able to bring the plane out of its descent and the passengers were thrown with much force against the seats. Mr. Byrd was hurt more seriously than the others.

Learning of the accident, Alderman Geo. Schaefer and Herbert Miller, of Arlington Heights, who were in Washington, attending the shrine convention, phoned Mrs. Byrd at once. They did so and found him resting easily. However, Friday night, the doctors found that two of the vertebrae of the backbone were broken and he was placed in cast, where he will have to remain several weeks.

He keeps in frequent touch with his family and his daughter received a telegram Monday from daddy in honor of her first birthday.

Congressman Schuetz of this district is doing what he can for comfort of Mr. Byrd.

EAR MARKS
TREAS. FUNDS
FOR VILLAGE*Village Official Finds $7,600 Due Arlington; Part Is Sweitzer Fund

Prompt action upon the part of the village of Arlington Heights and Wm. F. Meyer, assistant treasurer, has probably saved for the special assessment accounts due the village over $3,000 from the so-called Sweitzer tax redemption fund. This fund is fast disappearing as municipalities are demanding their share. The publication that the reported Sweitzer shortage of over $400,000 is from this fund hastened the presentation of claims to such an extent that the money remaining is nearly exhausted. "Late comers" will have to wait for their share.

Mr. Meyer reported to the Arlington Heights board of trustees Monday evening that in the two days spent in the county building he had determined that there was $7,600 due the village from the tax redemption fund. His last checkup was in October and Mr. Sweitzer relinquished his office as county clerk early in December.

A. F. Volz to Spend Six Weeks Taking Movies in the West

Albert F. Volz, Arlington Heights manufacturer, has no Hollywood aspirations, but his hobby is moving pictures and he will spend the next six weeks taking straight and colored movies. His first destination will be Bryce canyon in Utah, followed by three weeks in Colorado. He will make the trip by auto, taking his own time and returning home when he feels like it.

In the meantime, Mrs. Volz will be at their cottage at Fontanna on Lake Geneva, which she prefers to "galivanting" out west.

TO REPORT ON GRASS ROOTS
CONVENTION*Sec'y Allen to Tell Own
Story at Arlington Hts.
Mass Meeting June 26

The "Grass Roots" convention held two weeks ago at Springfield and which is considered by some people as marking the re-birth of the Republican party, "moves" to Arlington Heights next Wednesday for a two hour concentrated session in the form of a big mass meeting that will probably tax the capacity of the high school auditorium.

Jacob D. Allen, secretary of that convention and who is considered one of the Republican spellbinders in Illinois will give his own story as to what took place at Springfield. Mr. Allen has agreed with Rex Volz, that Arlington Heights in the center of the farming and truck gardening district of Cook county, is the most logical place in which to make this report.

County Commissioner William Busse will act as chairman of the meeting, which will also be attended by the other Republican members of the county board, including George A. Miller, Carl J. Carlson, Wm. M. Erickson and H. Wallace Caldwell.

Short talks will also be given by Arthur J. Bidwill, who was recently unseated by the Democratic majority in the Illinois senate and Frank Foster and Bernice T. Vander Vries, who represent this district in the state legislature.

Mrs. Elvira Arps-Foster, who attended the Grass Roots convention as the woman delegate from northwest Cook county, will give her convention experience.

This meeting will not be merely a local affair. The entire northwest and western Cook county as far south as North ave., will be advised of the event. There will be music by the Arlington Heights band and special entertainment. "This meeting," states Mr. Volz, "should not be considered a mere political rally. Matters of national importance to every citizen, no matter how he voted at the last national election, will be reported. Conditions today are such that if our Democratic form of government is to continue, every man and woman should make his or her own decisions. The leaders of this country have traveled so fast that the common people have been left way behind. It is now up to the voters to do the thinking and when they have the opportunity to do their voting at the next general election, they will be in a position to vote according to their own convictions."

Order of Builders to Hold Public Installation
Wednesday, June 26th

The Arlington Heights Chapter No. 169 Order of the Builders, invites everyone and their friends to attend the Public Installation of Officers, Wednesday evening, June 26, at 8:15 o'clock at the Methodist community hall, on St. James and Duntun streets in Arlington Heights.

The installing officers will be Cecil Meyer as the grand master builder, George Hauff as the grand deputy master builder, Earl Kopplin as the grand marshal, George Schaeffer as the grand secretary and William Schmitt as grand chaplain.

Earl Frederichs will be installed to the chair of master builder for the coming term. Lewis Helm as his deputy and Douglas Milligan and Harry Walsh as the senior and junior inspectors, Fred Lauterburg and Ralph Spears will be the secretary and treasurer. Don Hanauer and Robert Schaeffer will be the junior and senior overseers; Ed. Hahnfeldt will be the chaplain. Jim Hauff will be the Marshall; Frank Podzimik, Don Meyer, Sydney Allen and Lester Lewis will fill the stewards chairs and Harold Schadt will act as sentinel.

The advisory council will consist of Elmer Crane as the chairman, William Milligan, William Mueller, James Milligan, Gus Framberg, Francis Spears, Howard Helm and Henry Schulenburg as the retiring master builder. Other past master builders are: David Stevensen, C. Crane, Charles Poulsen, Howard Brown, James Goumas, Earl Kopplin, Cecil Meyer, George Hauff, George Schaeffer, William Milligan, Roslyn Newberg, William Schmitt, James Hauff, Sydney Allen and John Schulenburg now retiring.

Centennial Celebration Starts Tuesday

Celebrating its 100th anniversary, Des Plaines huge six-day Centennial Jubilee opens with a mammoth parade next Tuesday evening, (June 25) to wind up—after four evenings of a featured pageant depicting the past 100 years of that northwest Chicago suburb's growth in home-coming programs at the city's churches Sunday, June 30. Des Plaines is saying welcome to the throngs which are expected to crowd the city for the century birthday party.

Every organization in the city, together with representatives and officials of neighboring organizations and communities, has promised to enter floats in the prize parade. This event will reach its climax in the coronation of Miss Des Plaines and the presentation of her Court of Honor the same evening. Miss Des Plaines, Queen of the Centennial, is being selected now in a city-wide contest.

The historical pageant will be presented in its entirety Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:15. Over 15,000 persons are expected to watch the pantomime of the cast of 600 persons which will take part in presenting various episodes of the city's history, from the coming of the first settler back in the Indian days of 1835 to present day activities.

Oldest settlers of the city will be honored at a banquet Thursday night. A list has been compiled showing a surprising group of old residents who have lived in the community for nearly three-quarters of a century.

The Centennial Week program will near conclusion with a Kid-dies Pet and Costume parade Saturday afternoon and a colorful Centennial Ball Saturday night. A band concert and song festival will follow the church home-coming programs Sunday, concluding one of the most ambitious programs undertaken by this hundred year old community.

A Street of Fun promises to prove an interesting additional feature and attraction for the crowds expected to throng the city's streets during the six day program of activities. Des Plaines, gaily decorated for the once-in-a-lifetime occasion promises a real welcome to all visitors.

GO TO SHRINE CONVENTION

Alderman Geo. Schaefer and Herbert Miller, of Arlington Heights were among the 700 members of Medinah shrine who went to Washington, D. C., in two special trains last week to attend the shrine convention, which continued five days. It was the usual gala event with two day and one night parade.

Two Arlington Heights
Young People Receive University Degrees

Two residents of Arlington Heights were awarded diplomas by the University of Chicago at the university's 180th convocation exercises in the university chapel on the midway. Ethel Jean Fessler was awarded her Bachelor of Science degree through the Division of the Physical Sciences.

The higher degree of Master of Arts was awarded to Wallace Peter Mors, 202 N. Belmont. Mr. Mors had previously been awarded his Ph. D. degree from the University of Chicago. His master's dissertation which he did for the School of Business was entitled, "The Use of the Statement of Application of Funds in Financial Statement Analysis."

President Robert M. Hutchins presided at the Convocation and conferred a total of 883 degrees.

Believe me the Red Wings are in for a tough game, as the business men of Arlington Heights are all primed, Judge Kopplin and Geo. Schneberger co-managers of the business men's team promise to have an all-star team on the field. Let's all be out to see this special treat, or shall we call it a circus. This game should be most interesting for every one to see. The donkeys are trained for this game and we understand they do their work well.

NEW TRUCK AND MOTORCYCLE
FOR VILLAGE*Park Will Escape Carnival
This Year; Final Police
Stars Are Issued

No longer will the village street truck awake Arlington Heights in the early mornings as it is making its rounds while street cleaning. The "boiler factory" has been kept running through the tender care of village employees who nursed it along until it had reached a ripe old age. It is to be replaced by a modern dual wheel chassis equipped with hoist. Bids for the new truck were authorized by the Arlington Heights village Board Monday evening and appear in this issue.

There is also to be a new motorcycle, capable of going faster than 75 miles an hour which is the maximum of the present equipment. The new motorcycle ordered that evening will not take a lot of money as the two old machines are going to be traded in and the cash payment will be solely from a special fund.

Permission was granted by the board to the American Legion to hold the Legion Carnival on Miner street between Duntun and State road. The position of the carnival was changed from its traditional spot on Davis street in order to preserve the newly landscaped railroad park. Traffic on Evergreen street will be backed off only in the evenings.

Recommendation of the police committee for the issue of five more special police stars was approved. Those who will wear a new star are Fred Hinz, Ralph Stippick, Fred Bjorstrom, H. S. Brown, and P. K. Ladas.

Traffic on the Northwest highway and the village cross streets are once more running smoothly. The installation of a new control box for operating the traffic signals has been completed at a cost of $75 to Tom Stearns of Beloit, Wis., who demolished it in an accident a month ago. The board has approved a plan for putting the control box on a cement base to prevent the recurrence of such an accident.

DATE SET FOR DISCUSSION*Sewage Disposal Problem to be Taken up before
Citizens of Village

Friday, June 28, is the date tentatively set by the Village Board for a public meeting of the citizens of Mt. Prospect to discuss the sewage disposal problem raised by the order of May 18, of the State Sanitary Board.

It is planned to have a representative of the State speak at the meeting. It is expected that this speaker will be one of the State's sanitary engineers who should be in position to present much valuable information to the people of the village in dealing with their problem.

Village attorney H. J. Thal will be present to outline the legal aspects of the situation for us and Mr. Consoer of the engineering firm bearing his name has agreed to discuss the possible ways and means of handling technical and financial features.

Although the date of the meeting has not yet been definitely set, Friday, June 28, has been tentatively agreed upon pending the completion of final arrangements. All interested citizens of the village are therefore urged to reserve the evening and attend this meeting.

The purpose of this meeting is to give the people of the Village a chance to learn the whole body of facts which underlies the very great problem of sewage disposal which, unless it is solved very soon, will continue to be a sore spot. And, if the problem is not settled very soon by the Village, suit is threatened by the State immediately. Therefore this meeting to discuss ways and means is a very important one to all tax payers in the Village.

JUNIOR LEAGUE SUMMER FROLIC

The Arlington Heights Junior League cordially invites you and your friends to attend the dance they are sponsoring on Saturday evening, July 6, at Kildeer Country club, Long Grove and McHenry roads, Long Grove, Ill. Bids are only $1.50 per couple and may be purchased from any Junior League member or at the door the evening of the dance. Music by that popular and well known band "Bade's Revellers."

Chaperones for this much heralded affair will be Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. D. McNally, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Helm and Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Nelson.

Judge J. P. McGooty, of the superior court, Tuesday, denied the petition of the Weller Creek Drainage for an injunction or restraining order directed against the Village of Arlington Heights and the Arlington Park Jockey club to prevent the village from handling sewage matter from the latter through its treatment plant.

The village contended in court that by the payment of $10,000 to the drainage district at the time that the treatment works were installed, the village has a permanent right to use of the creek for both sewage and drainage purposes. They also contend that the creek is able to handle any additional water that might be directed through the creek on account of said hook-up and that the natural flow of drainage from the grandstand of the jockey club has always been toward the village.

The Weller Creek Drainage District, which includes the village of Mt. Prospect, can not stop the handling of the sewage this year. Whatever damages or redress depends upon future court action.

The action of the drainage district is directed jointly against the Arlington Jockey club and the Village of Arlington Heights, the attorneys of which are acting jointly.

(Mt. Prospect Review)

At the meeting of the Mt. Prospect board on June 4, the discussion of the problem of sewage treatment and disposal brought out the fact that the Village of Arlington Heights had contracted with the Arlington race track officials for the handling of sewage from the race track through the disposal plant at Arlington Heights for a period of twenty years. The president and members of the Arlington Heights Board were present at the time as visitors, and they took part in the discussion, explaining that their contract with the Jockey Club included a clause inserted by Attorney Thal, permitting cancellation of the contract by the Village, and also that it was considered, in making the contract, that the service to the race track, would come at a time when village drainage was at its lowest flow.

Superior Court Refuses Plea But Approves Basis of Petition

Since the Village Board meeting, the Weller Creek Drainage District Commissioner, William Kirchhoff, of Mt. Prospect, has protested against the contract, to the Village of Arlington Heights, and the Jockey Club officials, and on June 15, filed a petition for an injunction to halt the procedure under the contract. This petition superseded or amended a previous petition and outlined the grievances which the property owners of the district had against the race track officials and Arlington Heights. Judge John P. McGooty of the Superior Court, in Chicago, heard arguments on the case on June 17 and 18, and expressed an opinion that the Drainage District had a right to an injunction, as requested, but that, due to the fact that the racing season is about to open at Cordially invites the public to visit her store and inspect the rare old instruments on display during Des Plaines Centennial week June 22 to 29.

Wish to make special mention of our quaint European grand piano, probably one of the first made in Austria, beautiful Circean walnut case. This sweet toned instrument has been beautifully reconditioned. It's unusual construction alone is worth seeing.

Of no less interest to lovers of the beautiful and unusual is the rich, genuine Rosewood, Square Grand Piano. This instrument has been completely rebuilt and will not only lend charm and grace to any beautiful living or music room, but is a beautiful toned instrument as well.

Both instruments are for sale.

AUXILIARY NEWS

The Auxiliary held their regular meeting on June 4, 1935, at St. James school hall. It was a Fidac meeting and we put on a little play and an interesting program.

A special meeting was called by our president, Mrs. Hass for the election of officers and they are as follows: President, Bernice Forsen; first vice president, Gertrude Schaefer; second vice president, Marie Griffith; treasurer, Annette Miller; chaplain, Maude K. Parker; historian, Doris Palmer; sergeant-at-arms, Elsie Scholow.

These are elective offices and at a future date the names of chairman, secretary and others will be given, and here and now yours truly wants to thank all the girls of the auxiliary who elected one president of our unit. It makes me very happy and proud to serve you and you can just bet, I'll do my best. It is much easier to write this than say it so once again, "Thanks Gang."

Mrs. Pecchia, Mrs. Hoss and Mrs. Forsen attended Cook county council meeting on June 7. A trip was made to Elgin Sunday, June 16. Here is a list of what we took over. It was necktie month and our rehabilitation chairman, Mrs. Pope sure got neckful of ties as there were 136 35-lb. carpet rags, 300 magazines, 1 suit underwear, 1 suit, clothes, 1 pair of shoes, 4 decks cards, 54 packages cigarettes, 12 candy bars, 85 cup cakes. Nice work Josephine, Geo. Jorgensen and Pop Swanson were in life savers, who drove over and took Mrs. Pope, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Jorgensen and Arnold Forsen. It was the first trip your writer has missed in two years, but a bum back was our excuse this time.

Don't forget, girls, 9th district meeting Thursday night, June 21, at River Grove. We expect to see you all there.

Legion Carnival July 2 to 6. Get busy on those car books and let's see how much we can help the boys.

Oh, I nearly forgot, the Drum corps gave the auxiliary a dance June 8, at Schufreiders, and we made a nice little sum of money. Many thanks boys, you can do that again next year. As the woodman said, I must lumber along. (So long.)

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"God the Preserver of Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 16.

The Golden Text was, "The Lord giveth wisdom. . . . He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints" (Proverbs 2:6, 8).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down. He will fulfill the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them. The Lord preserveth all them that love him" (Psalms 145:14, 19, 20).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The divine Mind that made man maintains His own image and likeness. . . . All that really exists is the divine Mind and its idea, and in this Mind the entire being is found here and narrow way is to see and acknowledge this fact, yield to this power, and follow the leadings of truth" (p. 151).

Pepper Secrets

The difference in the source of white and black pepper is that black pepper is obtained from the immature berries of piper nigrum; white pepper, by allowing the berries to ripen and become more starchy.

A & P Make Improvement In Campbell Street Store

John Angelloff, when he became manager of the Campbell St. A & P store found the place a little crowded and determined to have bigger quarters. "You sell the goods and we will do the rest," was the reply of his boss. Well, John did his part and it was not long before Mr. Krause was asked to build an addition to the store building.

The additional space completed this week will permit installation of new counters and additional stock, yet Johnny is not satisfied. "If I can do it once I can do it again," says John and judging by the way he and his clerks are working for business the "boss" will have to do some more enlarging one of these days.

"Da Capo" in Music

The expression "da capo" in music is Italian and means "from the beginning." It indicates that the performer is to return to the beginning of the movement, or to a place marked S. and finish where the word "fine" is placed.

What is the news?
As you go up and down the street
News shines on every face you
meet;
Ask them to give it, there's the
rub,
They just give you a silent snub.
There's news of homes both good
and sad,
Such news by all is fully had;
There's news of picnics, parties,
fun,
That puts your pencil on the run;
Church celebrations, politics,
Out of the last you'll get some kicks;
Give us your news, it's like a taper,
To light the town through your home paper.
Our cheerful weather prophet who said until the 15th of June we would have much northeast chill
and cool rains, now the 18th and it continues, proving he was right.

day as the guest of Mrs. Mary
Wood at the Woods cottage at Cary

Stadler and family in their home
on North Douglas avenue.

Belmont avenue, invited twelve little playmates of her little son,
Charles Noble, to make a happy birthday for his third anniversary

knew just the right way to please those little boys and girls.
Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Noehren and little daughter, Marjorie Anne from Chicago.

Among the P. T. A. activities
for the children, they are sponsoring is the garden contest those expecting to enter this, should have their seed ready to plant now. We heard one girl say she was planting pop corn—something to last
the year through.

feld, Whiting and Miss Faust went to Lake Geneva to call on Mrs. A.
F. Volz, found her well and as always, busy.

Mrs. C. C. Schwartz had with her in her home on East Euclid,
her children and grandchildren, to help her celebrate her birthday and tell her she is only one year older than she was last year. At any way in her kind, hospitable way,
she made them enjoy a cheery, happy day with her, and wish for many just as happy returns of the day.

Roach of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Beaty are again located in their Oak Park
home. Their daughter, Miss Roberta, is continuing her studies in a summer course in that city. No doubt home, after their European tour, seems a good place to rest,
and to spend the summer days.

Mrs. Lilian Mitzlaff presented her pupils in a song recital in the Presbyterian church, June 11. We hear that it was a most pleasing affair, knowing the splendid ability of their teacher and the charming voices of many of her pupils. We are sorry we were not able to be present next time we will surely not miss it.

The Chicago teachers were released from their school duties Friday last week. Those at home with er and sisters, and at present has no definite plans. Miss Paddock has gone for a much needed relaxbyterian church were pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Adam and her daughter, Mrs. Hackbarth in the Adam's home on East Euclid Monday evening this week. They made up a happy company and are always glad to meet together and their kind hostesses made it a general delightful party.

Mrs. D. T. MacNab's friends were sorry to miss her from church Sunday and to learn that she was not usually well.

are moving from their old home on West Euclid into the former Fleischman house on North Evergreen avenue.

taken the upper apartment in the old Becker home on West Euclid street.

or any white elephants you have for the club rummage sale this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Meridith who live in Chicago were last week-end
guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall

An interesting display of rare,
old, beautiful instruments awaits
your inspection at the Maria Schaefer Music Store, 1460 Miner St.,
during Des Plaines Centennial
week.

Among this collection you will see both the unusual and beautiful, and historic . . . Tambourines used in the first minstrel show
given in Des Plaines . . . Drums used in the Civil War, old fashioned music boxes, Bass Violin over 100 years old . . . Unusually beautiful Rosewood Square piano (completely reconditioned). Quaint beautiful Circassian Walnut European Grand Piano, judged by piano makers as probably one of the first of its type built in Austria Hungary
. . . and a very old unusually beautiful Paisley shawl will help complete the setting.

Miss Adele Adams left home soon after her school in Kenosha closed in order to be on time to enter for a summer course in a Southern California college. Little time do our teachers find for recreation in their so-called vacations.

The closing exercises for St.
James parochial school where 20
pupils received their graduation diplomas. The ceremony and exercises were impressive and satisfactory to pastor, teachers and parents.
Three of the teachers, Sisters Ina,
Praxeda and Adolphus, have gone to the Mother House in Milwaukee,
when after several weeks, this group returns; Sisters Luella, Tersena and Urban, will go to Milwaukee for the same course of instruction.

Miss Geraldine Firnbach entertained the Little Flower club last Thursday evening in her father's home, assisted in all hospitalities
by her cheerful grandmother, Mrs.
Henry Firnbach. They enjoyed games, cards and choice refreshments into which all entered with gusto. You may be sure the guests thought the party with Miss Geraldine proved her to be a top notch
hostess.

Miss Eleanor Smith of South
State Road, was the recipient of a most delightful surprise Saturday last week. She was invited to the home of one of her girl friends in Chicago. When she arrived at the home she found a group of friends
had gathered to give her a birthday surprise, as it was her twentieth birthday. It was a delightful affair and all were happy to be a part of the joyous occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hackbarth

summer home of the Weinbarts.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Adams attended the annual picnic given by his company on the Insull farm at Libertyville Saturday last week.

In mentioning the dentists who attended the golfing tournament on the Nordic Golf course last week, we failed to mention the names of
Dr. Williams of Palatine and Dr.
Fanning of Barrington "who also ran" or golfed.—Beg pardon.

The annual convention of the V.
F. W. was held at Kankakee, a three days session Thursday, Friday and Saturday last week. Comrades John Duethorn and Homer Bolin from Arlington Heights attended and brought home enthusiastic reports

Honest... is there any difference in Gasolines? Uncle Sam says, "Yes!"

Uncle Sam, unlike some prominent people, won't endorse a single product. But he does

know exactly what goes into different brands of gasolines, because that's how he taxes

them. When it comes to Tydol, Sam says, "Ho! Guess I'll have to soak

you fellows twice! Once,

because Tydol is a swell
gasoline, and once, for the fine lubricant it contains." But we don't mind that double tax,

because Tydol does a double job. First, it runs

your motor better than other gaso-

lines. And second, it keeps it running better. For the special lubricant (also a carbon-solvent) that is blended into every gallon of Tydol gives your motor extra top-cylinder

lubrication that is vital to smooth performance and long life. Remember how you were advised to mix lubricating oil with your gasoline in breaking in your new motor? Well, Tydol

gives you that ideal combination, not just for the first 1,000

miles, but for every mile you drive...
and gives it to you at no extra cost.

Few Arlington Heights people were aware of the coming nuptials, but when Wm. F. There was a charivari crowd of over a hundred, the first contingent of which arrived at the Schoenbeck farm at 9:30. It was 3 o'clock when the last of them left for home after enjoying the Schoenbeck hospitality to the fullest extent.

Hirschberg, of Park Ridge. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Joe Svoboda. Mrs. Daisy Daniels sang "All for You," and "Take Thou My Love."

A sumptuous wedding dinner was served in the basement of the new school, and the evening was most happily spent by the sixty guests at the Bauer home.

Among the guests from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bauer and children; Herman Berlin, Mrs. Neukom, Miss Florence Bauer, of Elgin; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zinkel, of Prairie View; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Held, of Des Plaines.

The bride wore a becoming white satin gown and carried a bouquet of fragrant sweet peas; the bridesmaid was attired in pink silk and carried pink sweet peas.

A supper and entertainment following the ceremony, was attended by relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom.

Winkleman-Meyn Marriage Event Of The Year

Miss Vanetta Meyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Meyn and Mr. Preston Winkleman, of Arlington Heights were united in marriage on Saturday in the St. Paul's Lutheran church, Mount Prospect, by Reverend J. E. A. Mueller in a very beautiful ceremony. Mrs. Albert Russell of Arlington Heights sang "Hold Thou My Hands" and Mr. E. R. Jackisch, teacher in the St. Paul's Lutheran School of the Village, played Franz List's "Love Dream."

Following the wedding ceremony, 125 guests gathered at the home of the bride for a sumptuous wedding supper. After the supper the guests enjoyed dancing in the upper floor of the new Meyn building on Emmerson street, where the merry-making continued until quite late in the morning.

After the dance the bride and groom left for a honeymoon to some place they refused to divulge to their closest friends, who wished them at their departure many happy years of life.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful white satin gown with a flowing veil and the maids of honor were dressed in pink. The flower girl was dressed in blue net and the ring bearer was in full dress. The groom and gentlemen attending him were resplendent in full dress.

OBSERVER'S NOTES

"Back to the horse and buggy age" To the days of honest men When a dollar printed on its page Meant of cents just ten times ten, When the farmer was free to sow his field With grain he knew best would thrive And when he garnered the harvest yield He knew his own were kept alive. The merchant and the tradesmen then Gave him true measure and weight, There were no snoopers to tell him when To limit his happy estate. Farmers, merchants, tradesmen, all View dictators in amaze Losing their freedom, they recall Happy "Horse and buggy days."

To be sure there are good honest men, in our day—then why so silent? There were good men in the past who were silent men. Stephen was silent. Yet after the deed was done—what do we read?

"And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him." Why were these devout men silent before Stephen was stoned? Why oh why are good honest men silent now?

This reminds me of the pulling contest on The Tribune farm near Wheaton, Saturday last, where 78 horses and mules were to be tested as to their pulling strength. Each team pulls by itself—on a separate machine tests to be carefully noted.

Thursday last—a contest was going on in the senate at Washington when G. O. P. elephants, Democrat Donkeys and what have you put on an endurance test when Huey Long staged a filibuster and held the floor for fifteen hours fighting to defeat the N. R. A. remodeled bill from passing—which it did.

As the Scotch minister after preaching three straight hours—replied to a friend who asked him if he wasn't exhausted after so long a sermon. "Na, na, said, 'but it would ha' done your heart good to see the congregation.'" Like this Scotchman Huey came out fresh and fine, but it would ha' done ye good to see the senators!

No matter how loyal our new citizens prove themselves to be to their newly adopted country, they would not be all around true men and women if at times the love of the old home, to many the home of their childhood did not make their hearts ache for the dear homeland.

Miss K. J. Kealy came to us many years ago from England, and since her residence here has done splendid work for her business employments—as well as in church and social circles. Yet never have I seen a happier glow on her countenance than when she brought in a late number of The Geographical Magazine devoted to her old home on the Isle of Wight. There her father was in charge of the King's Equestrian, and there her early years were spent.

Beautiful scenery, fine descriptions, were skillfully pictured, and the memory of her fathers wonderful "Rose garden." No less loyal was she to American new friends and beautiful scenery, yet the old home land, in memory dwells and those most holding sacred memories—will be the most loyal citizens of the new.

Nothing in the history of the captivity of Israel ever so touch—and clung to memory as those words: "We hanged our harps on the willow trees—for how could we sing the songs of Zion in a strange land?" Some of us have felt that home sick, longing when only two states removed from the old home. Let us all remember this heartache for home—and be thoughtful and hospitable to the stranger within our gates.

Not long since Rexford Volz said in speaking of the beauties of the woods at this time—or maybe two weeks since. "You should see the woods now in all the glory of crab-apple—and hawthorn blossoms." It was not possible to go with the club to their woodland picnic, but outdoor or in they had a happy time despite unkind weather conditions.

No matter if your ships are lost at sea, your mines yield drops instead of pure gold, you can still claim the resplendent glory of the skies; the fragrance of flowers, and the comfortable companionship of trees, and no tax to pay on that joy.

Never have I seen a more luxuriant mass of lilac blossoms, now roses and peonies. Our great yellow rose bushes are scattering their golden petals all over the ground. Our one crabapple tree blossomed this year for the first time and a thornapple brought to us years ago by a young man who knew and loved the best things in nature gave us clusters of flowers.

O, the wood the wonderful wood With its noble spreading trees, Flowers and ferns, and fabled good A marvel to one who sees.

Blossoms and vines that grow and climb Their fragrance so freely flung, The airy grace of the columbine And the bluebells prettily hung.

O, the mosses, like velvet spread Where sunlight filtering falls Through the netted branches overhead. And the cheery wood bird calls.

O, the wood, the beautiful wood, Who thinks of its noxious things; Of evil lurking under the good, The nettles, and all that stings?

The poison things, the evil things That grow in the shadows dark; Crawling under the battike wings, Or boring under the bark. And, O, the heart, the human heart, In impulse noble and kind, Why do we tear its tendrils apart A motive of evil to find?

O the good, the wonderful good, Like trees when the sunlight falls In the human heart is understood When we walk where the Master calls.

"Keeping up with the Joneses" an up to date travel company advertising rates offers to give a honeymoon trip ticket at low rates with free return via way of Reno. Now ain't that some? In these years of reckless marriages and swift divorce? Believe it or not "it stood in the paper."

An unusual number of auto accidents have occurred to citizens of Arlington Heights recently. The Misses Heller and their niece, Rose Mary, returning from an auto trip to their old home in Ohio last week were run into and their car crushed by a reckless driver. None of the party were seriously hurt, yet sustained painful injuries. Mr. Eugene Heller brought his sisters and daughter home from a hospital last of the week.

Mr. Homer Byrd on his way to Washington, traveling with a business friend, while on their way from Washington to Cleveland, in some swirl of the wind their plane was hurled two hundred feet, they were dashed against the roof of their own plane, and Mr. Byrd was taken to the emergency hospital, Washington, where though badly bruised he is said not seriously hurt. Mr. Schaefer who was attending the Shriners convention and visited Mr. Byrd in the hospital.

We congratulate Mr. Wallace P. Mors in his completion of a post graduate course at the Chicago University and his attainment of a Master's Degree in his work. This our neighbor's son has worked his own way through college and now has a position under the University where he has been teaching, he secured his Ph. D. in 1933, and has been teaching and studying for this Master's Degree since.

He is also to be congratulated on his wise course in choosing for his life companion, one who had been with him in college work whom he had known for seven years, and whose work and interests are harmonious. We are glad to have such good happenings or fulfillment of hope and work come to our neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mors, who have had no small part in their son's success.

Our enthusiastic woodman Rexford Volz, who is an enthusiastic worker for the junior Republicans, tells us there is a prospect of the public here having the privilege of hearing their favorite speaker, Hon. Jacob Allen soon, as a mass meeting is planned to be held here in the high school auditorium, where he is to speak, if arrangements go off as planned.

"The Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there He placed the man and woman he created." And they fell from His guidance and since then men crowd in to cities and leave the gardens to grow weeds of war and trouble. If only each family had a garden, an acre—five acres or more no matter what their business, calling or profession—what a joy they might find in the retreat to a "garden eastward in Eden."

In England the titled and the nobility do not rear their families in the hothed of city influences. Many here love to copy England's ways, why not in this? O, I am sick and disgusted with people without background in birth or intellectual development speaking scornfully of one whose life was spent on a farm. We pity such ignorance, when if they knew history they would know our truly great men and women came from farm homes. More and more may our people be led to appreciate country life and to learn that a bit of ground and a home in the country is a boon to those who have to spend their day in city office or store.

The farmers occupation calls for the latest and the best in science and inventions of today. In the farmers hand rests the balance of world power; his hand holds the lever that controls the commerce of the world, and fills the monster merchant ships that fleet the seas. Yet foolish ones fearing to soil their hands or clothing leave the independent life and pure air of their farm homes for a narrowing one idea job in the city. Unaccountable isn't it?

Where the blue sky over his head In twilight shades to amethyst Or where the roseate walls of mist Meeting the morn flush deeper red.

He looks across the teeming land Where nature stirs to life again, Waiting to sow on field and plain Earth's daily bread, got by his hand.

The angry kings of war may rage For greater might, or greed of gain, And science searchers, keenly sage Still burn the midnight oil in vain.

Mid hunger pangs, in deaths dark hour, When famine devastates the land, Men own the balance of world power, Reposes in the farmers hand.

Build as they may walls of empire, Laden with gold and ships of Spain, And with the wealth of all obtain Fulfillment of each mad desire.

Burst every proud port of the earth, Anchor their palaces of pride And under banners, streaming wide Pour out their purple wine of mirth.

From the luxurious Orient, Still unto the far golden isles Their caravans with treasure sent, Girdle the circuit of earth's miles.

Yet Joseph of Earth's Israel, The farmer, though his brothers strive Their households he will keep alive.

With corn his hand provideth well. His harvests yields the nation's bread And with a golden chain they bind

Into one household all mankind, By hunger pangs discomfited. The far blue dome over his head, When twilight shades to amethyst, Or when the roseate walls of mist Meeting the day flush deeper red.

The farmer, lord of peace and mirth, Whose God has given to his hand The power to forge a golden band That binds the nations of the earth.

SAFETY FACTOR IS IMPORTANT PHASE OF TREADPRINTING

Offers Public Opportunity to Check up on its Tires Without Obligation

Public consciousness of the fact that motoring is no safer than the tires which equip the automobile, has been aroused by the campaign launched by Goodyear in a safety drive to check up on tires that are dangerous.

Dramatized by the treadprint plan, by the inspection stories of Joseph A. Faurot, fingerprinting and crime expert, who made a survey for the tire company, and carried through to careful inspection of the tires on cars of customers, a definite, well planned program to eliminate the unsafe tire equipment on highways this summer has been producing results. "Certainly it is a plan to help business," said Elroy Winkelman, local Goodyear dealer. "But it is more than just that. It is a worthwhile safety measure we Goodyear dealers believe will pay big dividends in lives saved, accidents prevented and general safety improvement right when it is needed most—at the peak of the year's biggest driving season.

The treadprint operation provides a quick, simple, but positive proof of the exact condition of the tires on the car, and this check-up is offered without obligation," Mr. Winkelman said.

"We can show anyone in a minute just what his tires will do in case of emergency stops on the highway, because we can see what there is in the way of tread to provide adequate traction if a quick demand is placed upon the carcass. The car owner can hold the proof of his tire's ability in his hand and see at close range upon just what his motoring safety depends.

"Hundreds of motorists are availing themselves of the opportunity to check up on their safety, which places them at no obligation. I certainly am glad to do my small part in helping make driving safer this summer."

Raising Perennials from Seeds

If you wish to raise some of your own perennials from seed, about now is a good time to plant.

There are several precautions and preparations necessary, which do not apply to the raising of annuals or vegetables. In the first place, many perennials are very slow in germinating, and since it is one of the fundamental laws governing growing anything from seed that the seeds must be kept moist until they germinate, some extra care is necessary to see that the seed bed is kept in proper condition. The soil should be very carefully prepared, mixing with it sand and peat to keep it fairly loose. Be very careful not to cover the seeds too deep. Many of these seeds are very fine and do not need to be covered more than one-eighth of an inch. It is a good plan then after they are planted to cover the row with strips of burlap using about two thicknesses, to hold the moisture in. The burlap should be kept wet enough so that it will lie flat and not blow away. Watch very carefully that the plants do not grow thru the burlap, remove it as soon as they show above ground. After the plants are up they should be protected from the hot sun, by a lath frame.

Most perennials will bloom the second year. The first year in the seed bed is the most critical period of their life. After the ground is frozen, it is well to cover the bed with some light mulch, slough, grass being the best we know of, but leaves and corn stalks will do. This mulch should not be removed until freezing nights are over. More perennial seedlings are lost on account of the heaving action of the frost than from any other cause. If you have made your seed bed in a spot that is rather wet during the winter and spring, it is a very common thing to find your plants lying on top of the ground, roots and all. To get around this difficulty, it is a good plan to have your bed for perennial seedlings raised somewhat above the general level of the rest of your garden. If you have a small bed this is easy. And your bed does not need to be large. All the perennials you need for the average yard can be raised on a plot six by eight feet. It is a very excellent plan to plant each year, until you get what you want. If you only want a couple new kinds each year, better buy the plants. It is quite interesting to grow your own, though, if you are willing to spend some time and trouble caring for them.

Some very desirable varieties that may be grown fairly easily by the average gardener are: Columbine, Dianthus, Delphinium, Gaillardia, Oriental Poppy, Penstemon, Platycodon, Polemonium, Pyrethrum, Rudbeckia, Baptisia, Shasta Daisy, Coreopsis, Lychnis, Campanula, Yucca, Hibiscus, Hollyhocks.

GRADUATION HELD BEFORE LARGE CROWD

Lutheran School Picnic Date Set for Next Sunday

Professor Albert Miller, Principal of the Lutheran School in Des Plaines, proved a very interesting speaker at the commencement exercises of the St. Paul's Lutheran school held last Thursday evening in the school auditorium. His subject was "Dare to be a Daniel." He applied the subject in a very timely manner to the commencement occasion. Daniel kept his faith even in heathen lands with all the temptations of the foreign court. In spite of the great enmity with which he was surrounded he was true to himself and to his faith. The summary of Professor Miller's speech was, "Experiences in life and living prove conclusively that in the long run the right thing is the best."

The speech of Professor Miller climaxed a very interesting program given by the members of the class before a crowded house. If there was room for one more person in the large auditorium, it was not in evidence. The Salutatory was given by Chester Voss and the Valedictory by Melvin Bach. Marion Mueller rendered a very excellent piano selection, and Frieda Kloske and Elmer Seegers accompanied by Alfred Stier pleased the large crowd with their guitar and song selections.

The graduating class were Sylvia Busse, Luella Gerken, Lorna Katz, Frieda Kloske, Verna Maleske, Elvira Moehling, Marion Mueller, Melvin Bach, Alex Fritz, Howard Hasz, Edwin Piepenbrink, Elmer Seegers, Chester Voss, and Leroy Wille, to whom diplomas were presented by Rev. J. E. A. Mueller.

The annual school picnic will be held this next Sunday on the school grounds. Games of all sorts will be a feature, with plenty of grubs, bowling, swing ball, a fish pond, and many other attractions. The climax will be reached in a family style supper served for a very moderate price at five o'clock. Every one is invited to attend and take part in the festivities.

TO THE PROPERTY OWNERS OF WELLER CREEK DRAINAGE DISTRICT

For the purpose of acquainting the people of Weller Creek Drainage District of the action taken by myself, the undersigned William Kirchhoff, the Sole Commissioner of the District, in the protection of the interests of the property owners assessed by the District, the following report of action taken in behalf of the District is hereby given:

An amended complaint for injunction dated June 15, 1935 was filed by Walter W. Weiss, Attorney for the District in the Superior Court of Cook County and heard by Judge John P. McGroarty on June 18, 1935, in which the following representations were made:

The Weller Creek Drainage District furnishes drainage for approximately 5,000 acres in the Townships of Maine, Wheeling and Elk Grove, and that construction work of the District included among other things, an open ditch about six miles long, fifteen feet in depth and ten feet wide.

At the time the District was formed, the Village of Arlington Heights did not become a part of the District. After the completion of the District, Arlington Heights desired an outlet for their drainage area by a court order of August 5, 1928, accepting a easement was given permitting the use of the District's ditch, for which the District was paid $10,000.00.

The Arlington Park Jockey Club, located in the Township of Palatine, and adjoining Arlington Heights, on land sloping mainly to the west, and draining into Salt Creek, entered into agreement with the Village of Arlington Heights on June 5, 1935 for the treatment of sewage from the grounds and premises of the Jockey Club. Under this agreement, the drainage of the area of the Jockey Club would be diverted from its natural flow, and the district's ditch would be required to carry the drainage, sewage and surface water by reason of the connections made or planned between the Jockey Club and the Village of Arlington Heights.

As soon as information was received of this plan, the undersigned communicated with the attorney for the Village of Arlington Heights, who wrote to the undersigned on June 5, 1935, with reference to the contract represented as pending, while in fact the contract had then been made, and within a few days after that date work was done in laying tile for the sewer connection between the Jockey Club premises and the sewer system of the Village of Arlington Heights. On June 8, 1935, the undersigned wrote to the Jockey Club notifying them that they would not be permitted the use of the District's ditch without adequate assessment, and on June 11, 1935, a similar notification was given by letter to the Village of Arlington Heights.

The Jockey Club, during racing season, provides toilet facilities, restaurant and other concession facilities for attendance which runs as high as 25,000 people; the drainage from which would increase the burden of the ditch unreasonably. Further, during periods of heavy rain, the treatment plant at Arlington Heights would be unable to properly treat the flow, and untold damage would result to the lands adjoining the ditch, which would be subject to overflow, due to the increased burden. The contract between the Jockey Club and the Village of Arlington Heights is represented as being contrary to law, since the privileges under the easement order of the court, of August 5, 1929, do not permit the granting of rights such as are conveyed to the Jockey Club under the contract with Arlington Heights. The contract would subject the District to legal action brought by owners of property in the District, whose drainage facilities would be detrimentally affected or whose property would be subject to damage. The ditch has previously been full to capacity, and has overflowed due to heavy rains in the past, and the increased flow would increase the chance or frequency of such occurrences.

It is further represented on information and belief, that the treatment plant of the Village of Arlington Heights treats sewage to the extent of only 80%, which is at present detrimental to the District, and the amount of untreated sewage would be increased under the contract between the Jockey Club and the Village of Arlington Heights.

The complaint for injunction asks for court action to prevent the carrying out of the contract referred to, for the reasons given briefly in the preceding report, and covered in detail and properly presented in the complaint filed with the Superior Court as stated. The interests of the property owners assessed by the District will be defended in the further action before the court, to prevent the damage which would result from the carrying out of the contract referred to. The copy of the complaint, with all exhibits filed therewith, including letters sent and received, as stated, and copy of the contract between the Jockey Club and the Village of Arlington Heights, are available to the public in the court records of the proceedings.

Signed WILLIAM KIRCHHOFF, Sole Commissioner, Weller Creek Drainage District.

This is a paid adv.

Wayfarers Made Welcome

There is an unwritten law among Australian ranchers that every traveler be given a meal and bed, including, of course, the "swagman," or "sundowner"—he who tramps the country looking for work with his belongings in a "swag" on his back—and who is provided with a shakedown in the men's quarter or in a shed sometimes erected specially for the purpose. Unheralded guests are inevitable in a continent of distances, but always welcome, according to the Australian Press Bureau.

Jolson Wrecks Scenes Calling Wife "Ruby"

Al Jolson is Ruby Keeler's husband first, after that he's an actor. That explains why, during the filming of the First National picture, "Go Into Your Dance," showing at the Des Plaines Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Al occasionally used wrong dialogue.

Al plays a character named "Al" in the picture, and that made dialogue easy for Ruby. She just had to address him as she always does. Jolson, however, had a problem on his hands.

Ruby is Ruby only so long as she remained behind the cameras. In front of it she was "Dorothy," for that's her name in the picture.

On several occasions Al addressed Ruby by her own name and thus ruined the scene, much to the amusement of the other players on the set and the exasperation of the director.

"This is Hollywood," explained Al, "where a fellow can't even call his wife by her right name!"

Jolson is starred with his wife, Miss Keeler, for the first time in "Go Into Your Dance," First National's latest musical spectacle. Others in the cast include Glenda Farrell, Helen Morgan, Barton MacLane, Benny Rubin, Phil Regan and Gordon Westcott.

Specialty numbers in which scores of chorus beauties dance were created and staged by Bobby Connolly, with music by Warren and Robin. The screen play is by Earl Baldwin, based on the story by Bradford Ropes.

Rains and Crop Growth Has Lowered May Milk Price; Class 1 is $2.20

With an unusually wet May aiding a heavy seasonal increase in milk production, and thereby depressing the prices of butter and manufactured milk, Class 1 sales also recorded a drop to 51 per cent of basic milk delivered by the Pure Milk Association members as compared with 54 per cent of basic milk delivered in April.

Pure Milk Association members will receive a gross price of $2.20 per hundred pounds for 51 per cent of the established base delivered during the month of May, according to Association officials. This price covers Class 1 fluid milk used by distributors buying from the Pure Milk Association.

A gross price of $1.50 per hundred pounds will be paid on an additional 20 per cent of established base delivered by Association members during May and sold by distributors as cream, manufactured milk, or used in making ice cream, ice cream mix, and Philadelphia or Italian types of cheese. This is the Class II price.

Members will receive United States Government butter fat price for milk delivered in excess of Class I and II milk. The average price for all milk delivered during May is $1.72 per cwt. All prices are f. o. b. country plant or loading platform.

The Evaporated Milk Association has reported an average price of $1.22 for the month of May.

State Legislature Fails to Pass Needed School Legislation

Springfield, Ill., June 19—"The outlook for constructive school legislation appears very dark," says a bulletin just issued by the Illinois State Teachers Association. This statement, summing up the legislative picture, as it applies to school bills, as of June 12, says:

"The regular session of the 59th general assembly is rapidly drawing to a close. Only another week or two are left before adjournment. The calendars are congested with hundreds of bills. A total of 1,123 house bills and 625 senate bills have been introduced making 1,728 separate units in the list."

"Only about 100 bills have been passed during the five months the legislature has been in session with the end extremely close. No school bills of importance have been passed in face of the fact that several were introduced months ago. No action has been taken on the state school appropriation bills."

"The emergency bill to make good the $7,000,000 appropriated but never delivered to the distributive school fund has been held on second reading for weeks. Absolutely nothing has been done to relieve the financial crisis facing many schools, paying unpaid teachers, rehabilitating depleted school equipment, or to assure bankrupt districts that they may open school next September."

"One excuse for the delay in school bills should wait until the educational commission made its report. That commission was appointed by the general assembly, and the governor, in February. Two of its definitely assigned duties were:

"1. To study and make recommendations concerning the financing of public schools and public education.

"2. To report these findings and recommendations to the 59th general assembly."

"Supporters of the bill creating this commission promised that the

Actions of Pedestrians Resulting in Deaths From Automobile Mishaps

Crossing in middle of block and against signals—34%

Children playing in street—11%

Walking along road—17%

Coming from behind car—9%

Many pedestrians seem to regard their lives of less importance than the few seconds' time that may be saved by crossing streets without regard to hazardous conditions, although it is true there are many drivers who take advantage of pedestrians.

In 1934 nearly half of all the persons killed in automobile accidents were pedestrians, it is shown by the annual figures compiled by the Travelers Insurance Company. The total number of pedestrians killed was 15,950, while nearly 270,000 pedestrians were injured.

Five out of every eight pedestrians killed, it is shown, were involved in accidents while crossing streets in the middle of the block, crossing intersections against signals or diagonally, darting out into streets from behind parked cars, or while walking along rural highways.

It has been pointed out that pedestrians run across streets in the middle of the block or against signals because many feel that little if any more protection is given them at properly designated crosswalks or when they wait for signals. Many pedestrians know that it is dangerous to walk along rural highways, but since paths or walks have not been provided, the question often is raised, "What else can pedestrians do along rural highways?" Of course it is good advice to walk facing traffic.

Pedestrians may well pause to consider the fact that in 1934 the rate of death per pedestrian accident was 45 per cent worse crossing in the middle of the block than at intersections, and was 74 per cent worse crossing against signals than with signals. At the same time, however, the driver is warned to be tolerant with the pedestrian, since the latter's faults are not crimes punishable by death."

commission would make its report by May 1. It has not yet reported. The statement has been made on good authority that the only recommendation it will make for emergency relief in an appropriation of approximately $2,733,000 to bring the 101 downstate counties up to the same percentage of the past school fund apportionment as already given to Cook county.

"The irony of this recommendation lies in the fact that the Cross-Gunning bills were introduced on April 16 to do this very thing.

These bills were severely criticized by May 1. It has not yet reported. The statement has been made on good authority that the only recommendation it will make for emergency relief in an appropriation of approximately $2,733,000 to bring the 101 downstate counties up to the same percentage of the past school fund apportionment as already given to Cook county.

Speed of the Road Runner
The bureau of biological survey says that the road runner is ca-pable of no more than 20 miles per hour and its cruising speed, so to speak, is only 10 to 12 miles per hour. The record attained by any road runner was a speed of 22 miles, which was made by a bird clocked while pursued across a bridge from which it could not escape.

Tabu Hard on Hawaiian Women
The word "tabu" is an Hawaiian contribution to the list of American folk words, says a bulletin from the Pan-Pacific Press bureau. ## Palatine Property Owners Discuss Need of Changes in Sewer Treatment Works

If the changes that are asked of Palatine by the Illinois Sanitary Water Board are to be made, the verdict rests with the tax payers of Palatine. There were hardly a score of the latter at the Palatine municipal building Monday night in response to the call issued by the board.

Carl E. Schwob, assistant sanitary engineer of the State department of public health and C. W. Klassen, acting technical secretary of the Sanitary water board were present.

The stream pollution problem of the metropolitan area, stated Mr. Schwob, is very bad. The state sanitary board has made a survey that included 800 miles of streams. There are 122 major sources of pollution along the Des Plaines river, $4 along Salt creek, 70 along Calumet river and 62 along north branch of the Chicago river. Those guilty include not alone municipalities, but golf courses, schools and institutions.

Following an outline of the general conditions that were discovered by the survey, Mr. Schwob told about conditions found in Palatine. "The present Imhoff system of treatment, if in operation," continued the speaker, "would handle about 700 people. There is about 30 tons of sewage solids deposited each by Palatine into Salt creek."

The history of the efforts of the state board to get action in Palatine starts Dec. 1, 1931, when the first inspection was made. The first letter was sent to the village a year later, at which time the suggestion of a sewer rental charge was made. During the following two years letters from the water board brought the reply from the village that the latter had no funds for the work.

Finally this spring definite proceedings and a formal hearing was held and the order issued by the commission giving the village until July 1, 1936, to have the improvement completed.

Representatives of the state present that evening did not give voice to any threats as to what would happen if Palatine did nothing, other than what the law provides could happen, meaning a judgment of $100 a day and the ultimate payment by court order at some future time.

A representative of the Consoer engineering firm was present and gave as an estimate that the cost of the needed improvement would be about $70,000, although no definite figures have yet been made. There could be a grant from the government of 45 per cent or more, dependent upon the financial condition of the municipality.

Local citizens present spoke freely, asked a lot of questions and gave their opinion that at the present time the residents of Palatine could not afford the improvement, either as a special assessment or based upon a yearly rental fee.

The chance that Uncle Sam might consider Palatine sufficiently destitute to either give a hundred per cent grant, or at least 75 per cent was mentioned by some of the speakers.

The first step necessary will be the preparation of definite figures by the engineers; second, the application for Government funds and grant; third passage of ordinance by the village; fourth possible referendum vote by the people.

Mayor Godknecht presided. All the board members were present, but left the discussion to the property owners. Mr. Godknecht repeatedly stated that the village could do nothing, and any action taken depended upon the desire of property owners.

No definite action was taken, but it was understood that the village should make application for a government grant after the figures of the engineer are received.

Palatine Man Finds His "Hoodoo" Corner
Roy LaLonde, of Palatine, will hereafter drive around the street intersections of Grand and North avenues. One evening last week, as he stepped at that corner on account of the red light, a wheel of his car fell off, due to crystallized axle. The next evening, he was again stopped at the same corner on account of the red light and his car was badly damaged by a street car. Roy is not superstitious, but does know that he is not to blame.

The administration recommendation is for the same amount previously appropriated.

Boy Scout News

In spite of threatening and rainy weather a number of scouts and their families visited Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta on the occasion of an open house last Sunday and were impressed with the completeness of equipment, beauty of the camp and adequate leadership. Fifteen local leaders also spent last week-end at the camp in the completion of the course of training in troop camping. They will hold a final session Tuesday evening, June 25, at which time certificates will be awarded. Their work has been to study all methods of camping, especially planning, programming and leading troops of boys into individual troop camps that are set up according to the minimum standards of scout camping.

Because of the great National Jamboree to be held in Washington, the last two weeks of August, the summer camping season for Scouts will be somewhat shorter than usual. Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta will operate for six weeks closing on August 4th. Scouts desiring to spend a week or more at camp are urged to register as soon as possible that they may be assured of places in the camp because of the short season and the anticipated large registration. Active in promoting the registration for camp are members of the camp committee of the council which include H. H. Calkins of Barington, Wm. Eichelman of Des Plaines, A. O. Atkins, R. D. Leslie and J. R. Page of Park Ridge.

The first meeting of the group of local Scouts and leaders who will attend the National Jamboree at Washington, D. C. this fall was held in the Des Plaines city hall. At that time tentative plans were made for the local preliminary encampment, the details of the trip to and from Washington, and the tentative Jamboree program was reviewed. Practically every day announcements of new features in this huge gathering of 30 thousand scouts are received locally, all of which point to an experience of a life time to every scout that attends. Although less than half of the council's quota is filled at the present time there are still a number of Scouts expecting to go that are not yet registered and undoubtedly others that will decide to take advantage of this unusual opportunity to visit the capitol city under conditions never before made available to the boys of America. Among those registered is Edw. Walsh of Troop 23 of Mt. Prospect. The group will be accompanied by Scout Executive C. C. Nimtz.

'Public Hero No. 1' Comes To Chicago Theater

Some of the most amazing thrills ever photographed are evident in the latest of the Gangster-G-men cycle of motion pictures "Public Hero No. 1," which is due at the Chicago theater on Friday, June 21. Filming running fights between criminals and secret service operatives at a speed of seventy miles an hour—Driving an automobile thru a flooded river—Building an authentic reproduction of a state penitentiary—Reproducing a face-lifting operation by make-up.

These are just a few of the difficult location and technical details that went into the making of this drama of the government's fight against organized crime. The story, based on actual cases in the files of the department of justice, was filmed with every attention to authenticity.

The cast includes such notables as Lionel Barrymore, Jean Arthur, Chester Morris, Paul Kelly, Lewis Stone and Joseph Calleia. Enlivening the gala stage production will be those nit-wits of radio block and Sully of the Columbia broadcasting company's "Big Show."

TIRES MAY LOOK ALIKE ON THE OUTSIDE ON THE INSIDE THEY ARE DIFFERENT

HEAT on the inside created by friction is the main cause of blowouts. Firestone Tires are different on the inside—they are built with the patented extra process of Gum-Dipping that soaks every cord and insulates every strand with pure liquid rubber, preventing internal friction and heat. No other make of tire is Gum-Dipped.

When you realize that there were 882,000 automobile accidents in 1934, injuring 954,000 people and killing 36,000, and that 43,000 of these accidents were caused by blowouts, punctures and skidding, you will be more interested in the make of tires you use on your car.

Firestone performance records again emphasize the undisputed evidence that Firestone Tires are not only blowout-proof, but give greatest protection against skidding. There are three questions and answers that will solve the problem of what tires to buy:

QUESTION 1—"Will the tread give me the greatest traction and protection against skidding?"

ANSWER—Recent tests by a leading University show that Firestone High Speed Non-Skid Tires stop a car 15% quicker than any other of the leading makes. For eight consecutive years Firestone Tires have been on the winning car in the dangerous Pike's Peak Race where a skid means death. This is undisputed evidence that Firestone gives car owners greatest protection against skidding.

QUESTION 2—"Are they blowout-proof?"

ANSWER—Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires have the most amazing records for being blowout-proof of any tires ever built. In the gruelling 500-Mile Race at Indianapolis, May 30th, every one of the 33 cars was equipped with Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires. Kelly Pettillo won the race and broke the record over this 26-year-old rough brick track without tire trouble—in fact, not one of the 33 drivers had tire trouble of any kind.

QUESTION 3—"Without sacrificing these two important safety features will they give me longer mileage, thus making them the most economical tires I can buy?"

ANSWER—Firestone High Speed Tires not only give you more than 50% longer wear, but also lowest cost per mile. This is made possible by the tough, wear-resisting tread built with higher shoulders and a wider, flatter contour. This thick, rugged, scientifically designed tread is held securely to the Gum-Dipped cord body by Firestone's patented construction of two extra layers of cords under the tread. This is a special construction feature not used in any other tire. Unequalled mileage records by thousands of car owners add undisputed evidence of the longer wear and greater economy of Firestone High Speed Tires.

HOMER J. BYRD IN BAD PLANE ACCIDENT

Must Stay in Washington
Hospital; Vertebrae
Is Injured

Homer J. Byrd, of Arlington Heights, former Cook county commissioner, is in a Washington hospital where he was taken following a freak plane accident last Wednesday night in the Virginia mountains, 75 miles west of Washington. He was returning home with his attorney after being in conference with the U. S. patent office. The plane contained three passengers and two pilots. The latter were strapped in their seats; the others were not. Hitting an air pocket, the plane started to fall throwing the three passengers against the roof of the cabin. The pilot was soon able to bring the plane out of its descent and the passengers were thrown with much force against the seats. Mr. Byrd was hurt more seriously than the others.

Learning of the accident, Alderman Geo. Schaefer and Herbert Miller, of Arlington Heights, who were in Washington, attending the shrine convention, phoned Mrs. Byrd that they would visit Mr. Byrd at once. They did so and found him resting easily. However, Friday night, the doctors found that two of the vertebrae of the backbone were broken and he was placed in cast, where he will have to remain several weeks.

He keeps in frequent touch with his family and his daughter received a telegram Monday from daddy in honor of her first birthday.

Congressman Schuetz of this district is doing what he can for comfort of Mr. Byrd.

EAR MARKS TREAS. FUNDS FOR VILLAGE

Village Official Finds $7,600 Due Arlington; Part Is Sweitzer Fund

Prompt action upon the part of the village of Arlington Heights and Wm. F. Meyer, assistant treasurer, has probably saved for the special assessment accounts due the village over $3,000 from the so-called Sweitzer tax redemption fund. This fund is fast disappearing as municipalities are demanding their share. The publication that the reported Sweitzer shortage of over $400,000 is from this fund hastened the presentation of claims to such an extent that the money remaining is nearly exhausted. "Late comers" will have to wait for their share.

A. F. Volz to Spend Six Weeks Taking Movies in the West

Albert F. Volz, Arlington Heights manufacturer, has no Hollywood aspirations, but his hobby is moving pictures and he will spend the next six weeks taking straight and colored movies. His first destination will be Bryce canyon in Colorado. He will make the trip by auto, taking his own time and returning home when he feels like it.

In the meantime, Mrs. Volz will be at her cottage at Fontanna on Lake Geneva, which she prefers to "galivanting" out west.

TO REPORT ON GRASS ROOTS CONVENTION

Sec'y Allen to Tell Own
Story at Arlington Hts.
Mass Meeting June 26

The "Grass Roots" convention held two weeks ago at Springfield and which is considered by some people as marking the re-birth of the Republican party, "moves" to Arlington Heights next Wednesday for a two hour concentrated session in the form of a big mass meeting that will probably tax the capacity of the high school auditorium.

County Commissioner William Busse will act as chairman of the meeting, which will also be attended by the other Republican members of the county board, including George A. Miller, Carl J. Carlson, Wm. M. Erickson and H. Wallace Caldwell.

Short talks will also be given by Arthur J. Bidwill, who was recently unseated by the Democratic majority in the Illinois senate and Frank Foster and Bernice T. Vander Vries, who represent this district in the state legislature.

Mrs. Elvira Arps-Foster, who attended the Grass Roots convention as the woman delegate from northwest Cook county, will give her convention experience.

This meeting will not be merely a local affair. The entire northwest suburbs and western Cook county as far south as North Ave., will be advised of the event. There will be music by the Arlington Heights band and special entertainment.

"This meeting," states Mr. Volz, "should not be considered a mere political rally. Matters of national importance to every citizen, no matter how he voted at the last national election, will be reported. Conditions today are such that if our Democratic form of government is to continue, every man and woman should make his or her own decisions. The leaders of this country have traveled so fast that the common people have been left way behind. It is now up to the voters to do the thinking and when they have the opportunity to do their voting at the next general election, they will be in a position to vote according to their own convictions."

Centennial Celebration Starts Tuesday

Celebrating its 100th anniversary, Des Plaines huge six-day Centennial Jubilee opens with a mammoth parade next Tuesday evening, (June 25) to wind up—after four evenings of a featured pageant depicting the past 100 years of that northwest Chicago suburb's growth in home-coming programs at the city's churches Sunday, June 30.

Des Plaines is saying welcome to the throngs which are expected to crowd the city for the century birthday party.

Every organization in the city, together with representatives and officials of neighboring organizations and communities, has promised to enter floats in the prize parade. This event will reach its climax in the coronation of Miss Des Plaines and the presentation of her Court of Honor the same evening.

Miss Des Plaines, Queen of the Centennial, being selected now in a city-wide contest.

The historical pageant will be presented in its entirety Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:15. Over 15,000 persons are expected to watch the pantomime of the cast of 600 persons which will take part in presenting various episodes of the city's history, from the coming of the first settler back in the Indian days of 1835 to present day activities.

Oldest settlers of the city will be honored at a banquet Thursday night. A list has been compiled showing a surprising group of old residents who have lived in the community for nearly three-quarters of a century.

The Centennial Week program will near conclusion with a Kiddies Pet and Costume parade Saturday and a colorful Centennial Ball Saturday night. A band concert and song festival will follow the church home-coming programs Sunday, concluding one of the most ambitious programs undertaken by this hundred year old community.

A Street of Fun promises to prove an interesting additional feature and attraction for the crowds expected to throng the city's streets during the six day program of activities. Des Plaines, gaily decorated for the once-in-a-lifetime occasion promises a real welcome to all visitors.

Donkey Ball Game At Arlington Sunday Business Men Play

Last Sunday's rain caused postponement of Donkey ball game, but the donkeys will be back to play next Sunday, June 23. Believe me the Red Wings are in for a tough game, as the business men of Arlington Heights are all primed, Judge Kopplin and Geo. Schaeffer co-managers of the team promise to have an all-star team on the field. Let's all be out to see this special treat, or shall we call it a circus. This game should be most interesting for every one to see. The donkeys are trained for this game and we understand they do their work well.

NEW TRUCK AND MOTORCYCLE FOR VILLAGE

Park Will Escape Carnival
This Year; Final Police
Stars Are Issued

No longer will the village street truck awake Arlington Heights in the early mornings as it is making its rounds while street cleaning. The "boiler factory" has been kept running through the tender care of village employees who nursed it along until it had reached a ripe old age. It is to be replaced by a modern dual wheel chassis equipped with hoist. Bids for the new truck were authorized by the Arlington Heights village Board Monday evening and appear in this issue.

There is also to be a new motorcycle, capable of going faster than 75 miles an hour which is the maximum of the present equipment. The new motorcycle ordered that evening will not take a lot of money as the two old machines are going to be traded in and the cash payment will be solely from a special fund.

Permission was granted by the board to the American Legion to hold the Legion Carnival on Miner street between Dunton and State road. The position of the carnival was changed from its traditional spot on Davis street in order to preserve the newly landscaped railroad park. Traffic on Evergreen street will be backed off only in the evenings.

Recommendation of the police committee for the issue of five more special police stars was approved. Those who will wear a new star are Fred Hinz, Ralph Stippick, Fred Bjerrstrom, H. S. Brown, and P. K. Ladas.

Traffic on the Northwest highway and the village cross streets are once more running smoothly. The installation of a new control box for operating the traffic signals has been completed at a cost of $75 to Tom Stearns of Beloit, Wis., who demolished it in an accident a month ago. The board has approved a plan for putting the control box on a cement base to prevent the recurrence of such an accident.

Even the Farmer Working in Own Field not Safe from Lady Pick Pockets

A Bensenville farmer will hereafter look with suspicion upon any woman folk that he sees crossing his field. Last Friday, while cultivating, two women approached him and asked the privilege of telling him his fortune. After they had left, he discovered that his pocketbook, containing $4, had gone with them.

St. John's Church Picnic is Sunday

MASS MEETING DATE SET FOR DISCUSSION

Sewage Disposal Problem
to be Taken up before
Citizens of Village

Friday, June 28, is the date tentatively set by the Village Board for a public meeting of the citizens of Mt. Prospect to discuss the sewage disposal problem raised by the order of May 18, of the State Sanitary Board.

It is planned to have a representative of the State speak at the meeting. It is expected that this speaker will be one of the State's sanitary engineers who should be in position to present much valuable information to the people of the village in dealing with their problem.

Village attorney H. J. Thal will be present to outline the legal aspects of the situation for us and Mr. Consoer of the engineering firm bearing his name has agreed to discuss the possible ways and means of handling technical and financial features.

Although the date of the meeting has not yet been definitely set, Friday, June 28, has been tentatively agreed upon pending the completion of final arrangements. All interested citizens of the village are therefore urged to reserve the evening and attend this meeting.

The purpose of this meeting is to give the people of the Village a chance to learn the whole body of facts which underlies the very great problem of sewage disposal which, unless it is solved very soon, will continue to be a sore spot. And, if the problem is not settled very soon by the Village, suit is threatened by the State immediately. Therefore this meeting to discuss ways and means is a very important one to all tax payers in the Village.

JUNIOR LEAGUE SUMMER FROLIC

The Arlington Heights Junior League cordially invites you and your friends to attend the dance they are sponsoring on Saturday evening, July 6, at Kildeer Country club, Long Grove, Ill. Chaperones for this much heralded affair will be Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. D. McNally, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Helm and Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Nelson.

Judge J. P. McGorty, of the superior court, Tuesday, denied the petition of the Weller Creek Drainage for an injunction or restraining order directed against the Village of Arlington Heights and the Arlington Park Jockey club to prevent the village from handling sewage matter from the latter through its treatment plant.

The village contended in court that by the payment of $10,000 to the drainage district at the time that the treatment works were installed, the village has a permanent right to use of the creek for both sewage and drainage purposes. They also contend that the creek is able to handle any additional water that might be directed through the creek on account of said hook-up and that the natural flow of drainage from the grandstand of the jockey club has always been toward the village.

The Weller Creek Drainage District, which includes the village of Mt. Prospect, can not stop the handling of the sewage this year. Whatever damages or redress depends upon future court action.

The action of the drainage district is directed jointly against the Arlington Jockey club and the Village of Arlington Heights, the attorneys of which are acting jointly.

(Mt. Prospect Review)

At the meeting of the Mt. Prospect board on June 4, the discussion of the problem of sewage treatment and disposal brought out the fact that the Village of Arlington Heights had contracted with the Arlington race track officials for the handling of sewage from the race track through the disposal plant at Arlington Heights for a period of twenty years. The president and members of the Arlington Heights Board were present at the time as visitors, and they took part in the discussion, explaining that their contract with the Jockey Club included a clause inserted by Attorney Thal, permitting cancellation of the contract by the Village, and also that it was considered, in making the contract, that the service to the race track, would come at a time when village drainage was at its lowest flow.

Superior Court Refuses Plea But Approves Basis of Petition

Since the Village Board meeting, the Weller Creek Drainage District Commissioner, William Kirchhoff, of Mt. Prospect, has protested against the contract, to the Village of Arlington Heights, and the Jockey Club officials, and, on June 15, filed a petition for an injunction to halt the procedure under the contract. This petition superseded or amended a previous petition and outlined the grievances which the property owners of the district had against the race track officials and Arlington Heights. Judge John P. McGorty of the Superior Court, in Chicago, heard arguments on the case on June 17 and 18, and expressed an opinion that the Drainage District had a right to an injunction, as requested, but that, due to the fact that the racing season is about to open at Simple, convenient control permits either manual or automatic operation.

● An Electro-Gas Control, connected to your present water heater, can be installed in kitchen, bath, or both. It enables you to light your water heater quickly and conveniently, by merely snapping a switch. It ends tire-some running up and down stairs. The switch can be regulated to turn off your heater in a few minutes or to light it at any certain time. It eliminates the danger of forgetfulness because it automatically shuts off the heater when water reaches the desired temperature.

Of no less interest to lovers of the beautiful and unusual is the rich, genuine Rosewood, Square Grand Piano. This instrument has been completely rebuilt and will not only lend charm and grace to any beautiful living or music room, but is a beautiful toned instrument as well.

Both instruments are for sale.

AUXILIARY NEWS

The Auxiliary held their regular meeting on June 4, 1935, at St. James school hall. It was a Fiday meeting and we put on a little play and an interesting program.

A special meeting was called by our president, Mrs. Hass for the election of officers and they are as follows: President, Bernice Forsen; first vice president, Gertrude Schaefer; second vice president, Marie Griffith; treasurer, Annette Miller; chaplain, Maude K. Parker; historian, Doris Palmer; sergeant-at-arms, Elsie Scholow.

These are elective offices and at a future date the names of chairman, secretary and others will be given, and here and now yours truly wants to thank all the girls of the auxiliary who elected one president of our unit. It makes me very happy and proud to serve you and you can just bet, I'll do my best. It's much easier to write this than say it so once again, "Thanks Gang."

Mrs. Pecchia, Mrs. Hoss and Mrs. Forsen attended Cook county council meeting on June 7. A trip was made to Elgin Sunday, June 16. Here is a list of what we took over. It was necktie month and our habilitation chairman, Mrs. Pope sure got neckful of ties as there were 136 35-lb. carpet rags, 300 magazines, 1 suit underwear, 1 suit clothes, 1 pair of shoes, 4 decks cards, 54 packages cigarettes, 12 candy bars, 85 cup cakes. Nice work Josephine, Geo. Jorgensen and Pep Swanson were in life savers, who drove over and took Mrs. Pope, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Jorgensen and Arnold Forsen. It was the first trip your writer has missed in two years, but a bum back was our excuse this time.

Don't forget, girls, 9th district meeting Thursday night, June 21, at River Grove. We expect to see you all there.

Legion Carnival July 2 to 6. Get busy on those car books and let's see how much we can help the boys.

Oh, I nearly forgot, the Drum corps gave the auxiliary a dance June 8, at Schuffriders, and we made a nice little sum of money. Many, many thanks boys, you can do that again next year. As the woodman said, I must lumber along. (So long.)

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
 "God the Preserver of Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 16.

The Golden Text was, "The Lord giveth wisdom. . . . He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints" (Proverbs 2:6, 8).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that are bowed down. He will fulfill the desire of them that fear him; he also will hear their cry, and will save them. The Lord preserveth all them that love him" (Psalms 145:14, 19, 20).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The divine Mind that made man maintains His own image and likeness. . . . All that really exists is the divine Mind and its idea, and in this Mind the entire being is found harmonious and eternal. The straight and narrow way is to see and acknowledge this fact, yield to this power, and follow the leadings of truth" (p. 151).

The additional space completed this week will permit installation of new counters and additional stock, yet Johnny is not satisfied. ## ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

What is the news?
As you go up and down the street
News shines on every face you
meet;

Ask them to give it, there's the
rub,
They just give you a silent snub.
There's news of homes both good
and sad,
Such news by all is fully had;
There's news of picnics, parties,
fun,

That puts your pencil on the run;
Church celebrations, politics,
Out of the last you'll get some
kicks;
Give us your news, it's like a taper,
To light the town through your
home paper.

Our cheerful weather prophet who said until the 15th of June we would have much northeast chill
and cool rains, now the 18th
and it continues, proving he was right.

Mrs. F. A. Whiting spent Sunday
as the guest of Mrs. Mary Wood at the Woods cottage at Cary
on the Fox river.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Dunn went to Chicago Saturday to be with one of her sisters, Miss Esther Madison, who was under surgical treatment for a throat trouble.

ing to leave soon to join her husband, who is a druggist in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Leachy, who live in one of the F. A. Wayman apartment, are moving to Detroit, where
Mr. Leachy has employment.

The Prof. Cleveland family arrived Tuesday night to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cleveland. They are on their way north for a summer outing.

from her teaching duties at Ann Arbor, to spend a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A.
Noyes and her sister, Miriam.

Mr. Folkman, who lives on South
State Road, was called to his old home in Wisconsin, where his father is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Lorenzen and "Buddy" Framberg, went to the Cary cottage at Cary for a few days last week.

Don't forget to put by articles you are tired of, or want to exchange for the Women's club rummage sale this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wilke left here first of the week for a motor trip outing south, east and west.
It is to be hoped they find better weather than we have here a present.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hall have gone to their summer home at Pleasant Lake, Wisconsin.

Mr. N. M. Stadler, the father of Mr. Clarence Stadler from Fort Lauderdale, Florida and his sister, Mrs. Annie Cornelius from Miami, are now guests of Mr. Clarence Stadler and family in their home
on North Douglas avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schmitt and two sons with Miss Lydia Decker, have gone on a motor trip to Connecticut, to visit their daughter, Lelah and their new little grandchild.

The Cessa club will meet with Mrs. Harvey Winkelman in her home June 25, don't forget the place and date, ladies.

Mrs. Charles Emmett of North
Belmont avenue, invited twelve little playmates of her little son,
Charles Noble, to make a happy
birthday for his third anniversary.
You may be sure Mrs. Emmett knew just the right way to please these little boys and girls.
Among the out-of-town guests
were Mrs. Noehren and little daughter, Marjorie Anne from Chicago.

Among the P. T. A. activities
for the children, they are sponsoring the garden contest those expecting to enter this, should have their seed ready to plant now. We heard one girl say she was planting pop corn—something to last
the year through.

Monday this week Mesdames El-feld, Whiting and Miss Faust went
to Lake Geneva to call on Mrs. A.
F. Volz, found her well and as always, busy.

Mrs. C. C. Schwartz had with her in her home on East Euclid,
her children and grandchildren, to
help her celebrate her birthday and
tell her she is only one year older than she was last year. At any way in her kind, hospitable way,
she made them enjoy a cheery, happy day with her, and wish for many
just as happy returns of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stadler joined his father and his aunt last Saturday in attending the marriage of Mr. Clarence Stadler's sister, Miss Irma Stadler, who was united in marriage to Mr. William Roach of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Beatty are again located in their Oak Park
home. Their daughter, Miss Roberta, is continuing her studies in
a summer course in that city. No doubt home, after their European tour, seems a good place to rest,
and to spend the summer days.

Mrs. Lilian Mitzlaff presented
her pupils in a song recital in the Presbyterian church, June 11. We hear that it was a most pleasing
affair, knowing the splendid ability
of their teacher and the charming voices of many of her pupils. We are sorry we were not able to be present next time we will surely
not miss it.

The Chicago teachers were released from their school duties Friday last week. Those at home with us in Arlington Heights are Miss Russell, is now in her home and with her usual activity will find rest in doing. Miss Marie Muller is also in her home with her mother and sisters, and at present has no definite plans. Miss Paddock
has gone for a much needed relaxation to visit her sister, Mrs.
Nickols in Philadelphia. Miss Nehls will go with her mother to rest in their peaceful summer home in the beautiful lake and woodland of Michigan. Miss Dorothy Noyes, having her vacation from her teaching at Ann Arbor, Michigan, starts this week for a summer course in Chicago university to win a masters degree.

The closing exercises for St.
James parochial school where 20
pupils received their graduation diplomas. The ceremony and exercises were impressive and satisfactory to pastor, teachers and parents.
Three of the teachers, Sisters Ina,
Praxeda and Adolphus, have gone
to the Mother House in Milwaukee
when after several weeks this group returns; Sisters Luella, Ter-sene and Urban, will go to Milwaukee for the same course of instruction.

Miss Geraldine Firnbach entertained the Little Flower club last Thursday evening in her father's home, assisted in all hospitalities
by her cheerful grandmother, Mrs.
Henry Firnbach. They enjoyed
games, cards and choice refreshments into which all entered with a gusto. You may be sure the guests
thought the party with Miss Geraldine proved her to be a top notch
hostess.

Miss Eleanor Smith of South
State Road, was the recipient of a most delightful surprise Saturday
last week. She was invited to the home of one of her girl friends in Chicago. When she arrived at the home she found a group of friends
had gathered to give her a birthday surprise, as it was her twentieth birthday. It was a delightful affair and all were happy to be a part of the joyous occasion.

Mrs. D. T. MacNab's friends were
sorry to miss her from church Sunday and to learn that she was not usually well.

are moving from their old home on West Euclid into the former Fleischman house on North Ever-
green avenue.

taken the upper apartment in the old Berbeck home on West Euclid street.

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Savare entertained friends from Palatine as dinner guests in their home on East Euclid, last Sunday.

Once more, don't forget to lay by some unneeded shoes or garments or any white elephants you have for
the club rummage sale this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Meridith who live in Chicago were last week-end
guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall
in their home on South State Road.

An interesting display of rare,
old, beautiful instruments awaits
your inspection at the Maria Schaefer Music Store, 1460 Miner St.,
during Des Plaines Centennial
week.

Among this collection you will
see both the unusual and beautiful, and historic . . . Tambourines
used in the first minstrel show
given in Des Plaines . . . Drums
used in the Civil War, old fash-

tiful Rosewood Square piano (com-

its type built in Austria Hungary

Honest... is there any difference in Gasolines? Uncle Sam says, "Yes!"

Uncle Sam, unlike some prominent people, won't endorse a single product. But he does

know exactly what goes into different brands of gasolines, be-

cause that's how he taxes
them. When it comes to Tydol, Sam

says, "Ho! Guess I'll have to soak
you fellows twice! Once,

because Tydol is a swell
gasoline, and once, for the fine lubri-

cant it contains." But we don't mind that double tax,

because Tydol does a double job. First, it runs

your motor better than other gaso-

lines. And second, it keeps it running better. For the special

lubricant (also a carbon-

solvent) that is blended into every gallon of Tydol gives your

motor extra top-cylinder

lubrication that is vital to smooth

performance and long life. Remember how you were advised

to mix lubricating oil with your gasoline in breaking in your

new motor? Well, Tydol

gives you that ideal combination, not just for the first 1,000

miles, but for every mile you drive...
and gives it to you at no extra cost.

MANY JUNE WEDDINGS THIS YEAR

Nuptials Include Both the Young and Old; in Quiet and Church Ceremonies

VOLLMER-BELZER
Miss Lillian Vollmer of Chicago and Mr. Jerry Belzer of Wheeling were married Tuesday evening, June 18, 7:30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Harris, 118 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights. Rev. Kossack performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin were the attendants. The newlyweds left for a trip south and on their return will live in Fort Atkinson, Wis. Mr. Belzer is Mrs. Harris' brother.

ALBRECHT-SCHOENBECK
Mr. Christ Schoenbeck and Mrs. Mathilda Albrecht were quietly married at the home of Rev. Fricke at 7:30 Tuesday evening. The witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schoenbeck. A wedding supper followed at the Schoenbeck farm home on State road attended by the children and near relatives of the contracting parties.
Few Arlington Heights people were aware of the coming nuptials, but when Wm. F. Meyer happened to discover the bride and groom in the office of the county clerk in Chicago that morning, there was no need to send out any invitations. There was a charivari crowd of over a hundred, the first contingent of which arrived at the Schoenbeck farm at 9:30. It was 3 o'clock when the last of them left for home after enjoying the Schoenbeck hospitality to the fullest extent.
The bride and groom have the best wishes of their many friends and are looking forward to many years of happy life together. For the present they will reside upon the farm, later moving to Arlington Heights.

ZINKEL-BAUER
Miss Ethel A. Bauer, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bauer of Palatine road, became the bride of Mr. Louis A. Zinkel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zinkel, of Prairie View at 4:30 Saturday afternoon, June 15. The ceremony occurred at the home of the bride's parents, and was performed by the Rev. Theo. F. Bierbaum, of Elgin, former pastor of St. John's church, Arlington Heights.
The bridesmaids were Miss Lucille Bauer, who was attired in blue taffeta and Miss Grace Bauer who wore pink taffeta, both carrying pink roses and blue delphiniums. Mary Svoboda, of Des Plaines was flower girl. The groomsmen were Joe Svoboda and Erwin

Hirschberg, of Park Ridge. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Joe Svoboda. Mrs. Daisy Daniels sang "All for You" and "Take Thou My Vow."
A sumptuous wedding dinner was served in the basement of the new school, and the evening was most happily spent by the sixty guests at the Bauer home.
Among the guests from out of town were:
Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bauer and children; Herman Berlin, Mrs. Neukom, Miss Florence Bauer, of Elgin; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zinkel, of Prairie View; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Held, of Des Plaines.
The groom is a mail carrier at the Arlington Heights post office. The bride has been a stenographer at the Benjamin Electric Co. the past 11 years and expects to continue her work there. They will be at home to their friends in the new apartment after July 1.

WEIZMANN-SCHMIDT
Nick Weizmann, popular barber of Arlington Heights and Miss Helen Schmidt, of Springfield, were married at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. J. T. Weizmann, pastor of St. James' church, of Arlington Heights. They were attended by Mrs. Albert H. Harting as bridesmaid, Fritz Weizmann as groomsmen, Albert H. Harting and Mrs. Fritz Weizmann.
The bride wore a becoming white satin gown and carried a bouquet of fragrant sweet peas; the bridesmaid was attired in pink silk and carried pink sweet peas.
A supper and entertainment following the ceremony, was attended by relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom.

Winkleman-Meyn Marriage Event Of The Year

Miss Vanetta Meyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Meyn and Mr. Preston Winkleman, of Arlington Heights were united in marriage on Saturday in the St. Paul's Lutheran church, Mount Prospect, by Reverend J. E. A. Mueller in a very beautiful ceremony. Mrs. Albert Russell of Arlington Heights sang "Hold Thou My Hand" and Mr. E. R. Jackisch, teacher in the St. Paul's Lutheran School of the Village, played Franz List's "Love Dream."

Herbert Weinrich of Arlington Heights was best man, with Howard Hausman and Leonard Rodewald as ushers. Maids of honor were Elvira Meyn, sister of the bride, and Bernice Schulenburg and Gertrude Moehling.

Little Jimmie Winkleman acted as ring bearer and his tiny cousin, Nancy Jane Bauman, was flower girl.

Following the wedding ceremony, 125 guests gathered at the home of the bride for a sumptuous wedding supper. After the supper, the guests enjoyed dancing in the upper floor of the new Meyn building on Emerson street, where the merry-making continued until quite late in the morning.

After the dance the bride and groom left for a honeymoon to some place they refused to divulge to their closest friends, who wished them at their departure many happy years of life.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful white satin gown with a flowing veil and the maids of honor were dressed in pink. The flower girl was dressed in blue net and the ring bearer was in full dress. The groom and gentlemen attending him were resplendent in full dress.

OBSERVER'S NOTES

"Back to the horse and buggy age" To the days of honest men When a dollar printed on its page Meant of cents just ten times ten, When the farmer was free to sow his field With grain he knew best would thrive

And when he garnered the harvest yield He knew his own were kept alive. The merchant and the tradesman then Gave him true measure and weight, There were no snoopers to tell him when

To limit his happy estate, Farmers, merchants, tradesmen, all View dictators in attire, Laying their freedom, they recall Happy "Horse and buggy days."

To be sure there are good honest men, in our day—then why so silent? There were good men in the past who were silent when Stephen was stoned to death. Yet after the deed was done—what do we read?

"And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him." Why were these devout men silent before Stephen was stoned? Why oh why are good honest men silent now?

This reminds me of the pulling contest on The Tribune farm near Wheaton, Saturday last, where 78 horses and mules were to be tested as to their pulling strength. Each team pulls by itself—on a separate machine tests to be carefully noted.

Thursday last—a contest was going on in the senate at Washington when G. O. P. elephants, Democrat Donkeys and what have you put on an endurance test when Huey Long staged a filibuster and held the floor for fifteen hours fighting to defeat the N. R. A. remodeled bill from passing—which it did.

As the Scotch minister after preaching three straight hours—replied to a friend who asked him if he wasn't exhausted after so long a sermon. "No, no, said, 'but it would ha' done your heart good to see the congregation.'" Like this Scotchman Huey came out fresh and fine, but it would ha' done good to see the senators!

No matter how loyal our new citizens prove themselves to be to their newly adopted country, they would not be all around true men and women if at times the love of the old home, to many the home of their childhood did not make their hearts ache for the dear homeland.

Miss K. J. Kealy came to us many years ago from England, and since her residence here has done splendid work for her business employers—as well as in church and social circles. Yet never have I seen a happier glow on her countenance—than when she brought in a late number of The Geographic Magazine devoted to her old home on the Isle of Wight. There her father was in charge of the King's Bannery, and there her early years were spent.

Beautiful scenery, fine descriptions, were skillfully pictured, and the memory of her fathers wonderful "Rose garden." No less loyal was she to American new friends and beautiful scenery, yet the old home land, in memory dwells and those most holding sacred memories—will be the most loyal citizens of the new.

Nothing in the history of the captivity of Israel ever so touch—and clung to memory as those words: "We hanged our harps on the willow trees—for how could we sing the songs of Zion in a strange land?" Some of us have felt that home sick, longing when only two states removed from the old home. Let us all remember this heartache for home—and be thoughtful and hospitable to the stranger within our gates.

Not long since Rexford Volz said in speaking of the beauties of the woods at this time—or maybe two weeks since. "You should see the woods now in all the glory of crabapple—and hawthorn blossoms." It was not possible to go with the club to their woodland picnic, but outdoor—or in they had a happy time despite unkind weather conditions.

Never have I seen a more luxuriant mass of lilac blossoms, now roses and peonies. Our great yellow rose bushes are scattering their golden petals all over the ground. Our one crabapple tree blossomed this year for the first time and a thornapple brought to us years ago by a young man who knew and loved the best things in nature gave us clusters of flowers.

O, the wood the wonderful wood With its noble spreading trees, Flowers and ferns, and fabled good A marvel to one who sees.

Blossoms and vines that grow and climb Their fragrance so freely flung, The airy grace of the columbine And the bluebells prettily hung.

O, the mosses, like velvet spread Where sunlight filtering falls Through the netted branches overhead. And the cheery wood bird calls.

O, the wood, the beautiful wood, Who thinks of its noxious things? Of evil lurking under the good, The nettles, and all that stings?

The poison things, the evil things That grow in the shadows dark; Crawling under the battike wings, Or boring under the bark. And, O, the heart, the human heart, In impulse noble and kind Why do we tear its tendrils apart A motive of evil to find?

O, the good, the wonderful good, Like trees when the sunlight falls In the human heart is understood When we walk where the Master calls.

"Keeping up with the Joneses" an up to date travel company advertising rates offers to give a honeymoon trip ticket at low rates with free return via way of Reno. "Now ain't that some." In these years of reckless marriages and swift divorce? Believe it or not "it stood in the paper."

An unusual number of auto accidents have occurred to citizens of Arlington Heights recently. The Misses Heller and their niece, Rose Mary, returning from an auto trip to their old home in Ohio last week were run into and their car crushed by a reckless driver. None of the party were seriously hurt, yet sustained painful injuries. Mr. Eugene Heller brought his sisters and daughter home from a hospital last of the week.

Mr. Homer Byrd on his way to Washington, traveling with a business friend, while on their way from Washington to Cleveland, in some swirl of the wind their plane was hurled two hundred feet, they were dashed against the roof of their own plane, and Mr. Byrd was taken to the emergency hospital, Washington, where though badly bruised he is said not seriously hurt. Mr. Schaefer who was attending the Shriners convention and visited Mr. Byrd in the hospital.

We congratulate Mr. Wallace P. Mors in his completion of a post graduate course at the Chicago university and his attainment of a Master's Degree in his work. This

our neighbor's son has worked his own way through college and now has a position under the University where he has been teaching, he secured his Ph. D. in 1933, and has been teaching and studying for this Master's Degree since.

He is also to be congratulated on his wise course in choosing for his life companion, one who had been with him in college work whom he had known for seven years, and whose work and interests are harmonious. We are glad to have such good happenings or fulfillment of hope and work come to our neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mors, who have had no small part in their son's success.

Our enthusiastic woodman Rexford Volz, who is an enthusiastic worker for the junior Republicans, tells us there is a prospect of the public here having the privilege of hearing their favorite speaker, Hon. Jacob Allen soon, as a mass meeting is planned to be held here in the high school auditorium, where he is to speak, if arrangements go off as planned.

"The Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there He placed the man and woman he created." And they fell from His guidance and since then men crowd into cities and leave the gardens to grow weeds of war and trouble. If only each family had a garden, an acre—five acres or more no matter what their business, calling or profession—what a joy they might find in the retreat to a "garden eastward in Eden."

In England the titled and the nobility do not rear their families in the hotbed of city influences. Many here love to copy England's ways, why not in this? O, I am sick and disgusted with people without background in birth or intellectual development speaking scornfully of one whose life was spent on a farm. We pity such ignorance, when if they knew history they would know our truly great men and women came from farm homes. More and more may our people be led to appreciate country life and to learn that a bit of ground and a home in the country is a boon to those who have to spend their day in city office or store.

The farmers occupation calls for the latest and the best in science and inventions of today. In the farmers hand rests the balance of world power; his hand holds the lever that controls the commerce of the world, and fills the monster merchant ships that flock the seas. Yet foolish ones fearing to soil their hands or clothing leave the independent life and pure air of their farm homes for a narrowing one idea job in the city. Unaccountable isn't it?

Where the blue sky over his head In twilight shades to amethyst Or where the roseate walls of mist Meeting the morn flush deeper red.

He looks across the teeming land Where nature stirs to life again, Waiting to sow on field and plain Earths daily bread, got by his hand. The angry kings of war may rage For greater might, or greed of gain, And science searchers, keenly sage Still burn the midnight oil in vain.

Mid hunger pangs, in deaths dark When famine devastates the land, Men own the balance of world power Reposes in the farmers hand.

Build as they may walls of empire, Laden with gold and ships of Spain, And with the wealth of all obtain Fulfillment of each mad desire.

Burst every proud port of the earth, Anchor their palaces of pride, And under banners, streaming wide Pour out their purple wine of mirth.

From the luxurious Orient, Still unto the far golden isles Their caravans with treasure sent, Girdle the circuit of earth's miles.

Yet Joseph of Earth's Israel, The farmer, though his brothers strive, Their households he will keep alive

With corn his hand provideth well. His harvests yields the nation's bread And with a golden chain they bind

Into one household all mankind, By hunger pangs discomfited. The far blue dome over his head,

When twilight shades to amethyst, Or when the roseate walls of mist Meeting the day flush deeper red.

The farmer, lord of peace and mirth, Whose God has given to his hand The power to forge a golden band That binds the nations of the earth.

SAFETY FACTOR IS IMPORTANT PHASE OF TREADPRINTING

Offers Public Opportunity to Check up on its Tires Without Obligation

Public consciousness of the fact that motoring is no safer than the tires which equip the automobile, has been aroused by the campaign launched by Goodyear in a safety drive to check up on tires that are dangerous.

Dramatized by the treadprint plan, by the inspection stories of Joseph A. Faurot, fingerprinting and crime expert, who made a survey for the tire company, and carried through to careful individual inspection of the tires on cars of customers, a definite, well planned program to eliminate the unsafe tire equipment on highways this summer has been producing results.

"Certainly it is a plan to help business," said Elroy Winkelman, local Goodyear dealer. "But it is more than just that. It is a worthwhile safety measure we Goodyear dealers believe will pay big dividends in lives saved, accidents prevented and general safety improvement right when it is needed most—at the peak of the year's biggest driving season."

The treadprint operation provides a quick, simple, but positive proof of the exact condition of the tires on the car, and this check-up is offered without obligation," Mr. Winkelman said.

"We can show anyone in a minute just what his tires will do in case of emergency stops on the highway, because we can see what there is in the way of tread to provide adequate traction if a quick demand is placed upon the carcass. The car owner can hold the proof of his tire's ability in his hand and see at close range upon just what his motoring safety depends."

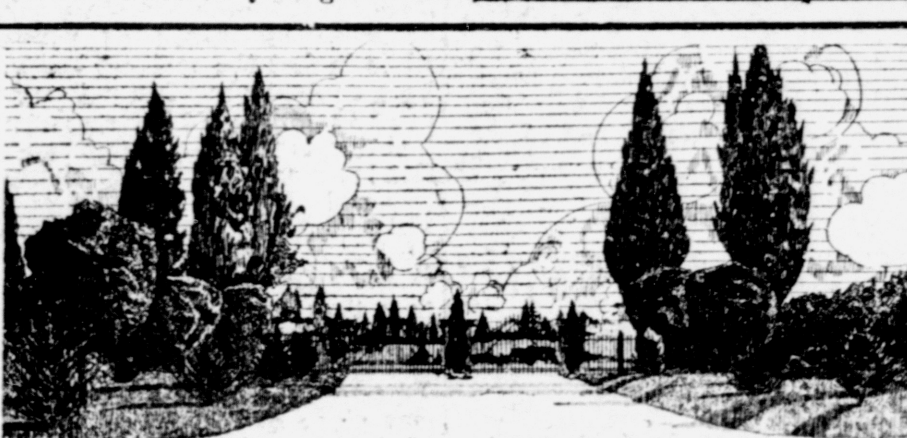

"Hundreds of motorists are availing themselves of the opportunity to check up on their safety, which places them at no obligation. I certainly am glad to do my small part in helping make driving safer this summer."

Raising Perennials from Seeds

If you wish to raise some of your own perennials from seed, about now is a good time to plant. There are several precautions and preparations necessary, which do not apply to the raising of annuals or vegetables. In the first place, many perennials are very slow in germinating, and since it is one of the fundamental laws governing growing anything from seed that the seeds must be kept moist until they germinate, some extra care is necessary to see that the seed bed is kept in proper condition. The soil should be very carefully prepared, mixing with it sand and peat to keep it fairly loose. Be very careful not to cover the seeds too deep. Many of these seeds are very fine and do not need to be covered more than one-eighth of an inch. It is a good plan then after they are planted to cover the row with strips of burlap using about two thicknesses, to hold the moisture in. The burlap should be kept wet enough so that it will lie flat and not blow away. Watch very carefully that the plants do not grow thru the burlap, remove it as soon as they show above ground. After the plants are up they should be protected from the hot sun, by a lath frame.

Most perennials will bloom the second year. The first year in the seed bed is the most critical period of their life. After the ground is frozen, it is well to cover the bed with some light mulch, slough-grass being the best we know of, but leaves and corn stalks will do. This mulch should not be removed until freezing nights are over. More perennial seedlings are lost on account of the heaving action of the frost than from any other cause. If you have made your seed bed in a spot that is rather wet during the winter and spring, it is a very common thing to find your plants lying on top of the ground, roots and all. To get around this difficulty, it is a good plan to have your bed for perennial seedlings raised somewhat above the general level of the rest of your garden. If you have a small bed this is easy. And your bed does not need to be large. All the perennials you need for the average yard can be raised on a plot six by eight feet. It is a very excellent plan to plant about a half dozen different varieties each year, until you get what you want. If you only want a couple new kinds each year, better buy the plants. It is quite interesting to grow your own, though, if you are willing to spend some time and trouble caring for them.

Some very desirable varieties that may be grown fairly easily by the average gardener are: Columbine, Dianthus, Delphinium, Gaillardia, Oriental Poppy, Penstemon, Platycodon, Polemonium, Pyrethrum, Rudbeckia, Batisia, Shasta Daisy, Coreopsis, Lychnis, Campanula, Yucca, Hibiscus, Hollyhocks.

Fourth Celebration Plans to be Made Monday Evening

A meeting of all organizations is being called for next Monday evening to plan the Fourth of July celebration. This meeting will be held about 8 o'clock in the Village hall after the ball game is over. All organizations are being contacted to be sure that everyone is represented.

The Fourth celebration of last year proved such a success that it was unanimously decided a year ago to make it an annual event. The program of last year included baseball games, a water fight by the Village firemen, band music by the boys from St. Mary's, a speech by Dr. Buck, and the grand finale was reached in the fireworks at nine o'clock. What the program will consist of this year will be left entirely to the decision to be made in the meeting this Monday evening.

Lutheran School Picnic Date Set for Next Sunday

Professor Albert Miller, Principal of the Lutheran School in Des Plaines, proved a very interesting speaker at the commencement exercises of the St. Paul's Lutheran school held last Thursday evening in the school auditorium. His subject was "Dare to be a Daniel." He applied the subject in a very timely manner to the commencement occasion. Daniel kept his faith even in the heathen lands with all the temptations of the foreign court. In spite of the great enmity with which he was surrounded he was true to himself and to his faith. The summary of Professor Miller's speech was, "Experiences in life and living prove conclusively that in the long run the right thing is the best."

The speech of Professor Miller climaxed a very interesting program given by the members of the class before a crowded house. If there was room for one more person in the large auditorium, it was not in evidence. The Salutatory was given by Chester Voss and the Valedictory by Melvin Bach. Marion Mueller rendered a very excellent piano selection, and Frieda Klosske and Elmer Seggers accompanied by Alfred Stier pleased the large crowd with their guitar and song selections.

The graduating class were Sylvia Busse, Luella Gerken, Lorna Katz, Frieda Klosske, Verna Maleske, Elvira Moehling, Marion Mueller, Melvin Bach, Alex Fritz, Howard Hasz, Edwin Piepenbrink, Elmer Seggers, Chester Voss, and Leroy Wille, to whom diplomas were presented by Rev. J. E. A. Mueller.

The annual school picnic will be held this next Sunday on the school grounds. Games of all sorts will be a feature, with plenty of grabs, bowling, swing ball, a fish pond, and many other attractions. The climax will be reached in a family style supper served for a very moderate price at five o'clock. Every one is invited to attend and take part in the festivities.

St. Paul's Game Rained Out

Will Play Highland Park Sunday in Non-League Encounter

The St. Paul's game with the Bethlehem team of Chicago in Chicago, was rained out last Sunday. This game will be played in July or August on the first open date.

Next Sunday the team travels to Highland Park to play a non-league game. The team has a bye in the league schedule and to keep in trim have scheduled a game with the tough Highland Park team. The team is in first place in their league with Bethlehem one game behind. The local team is hitting very well with only 3 players of the 13 batting below .300. The boys are also fielding very well.

Notice P. T. A. Mothers

Mrs. Maseng, chairman, has some good ideas, so with your ideas and your cooperation, we should make the summer days something to which we can all look forward. Come over to the school house Friday afternoon, June 21, at 2:30 to help make plans.

Mrs. W. C. Avery.

Cub Scout Notice

TO THE PROPERTY OWNERS OF WELLER CREEK DRAINAGE DISTRICT

For the purpose of acquainting the people of Weller Creek Drainage District of the action taken by myself, the undersigned William Kirchhoff, the Sole Commissioner of the District, in the protection of the interests of the property owners assessed by the District, the following report of action taken in behalf of the District is hereby given:

An amended complaint for injunction dated June 15, 1935 was filed by Walter W. Weiss, Attorney for the District in the Superior Court of Cook county and heard by Judge John P. McGooty on June 18, 1935, in which the following representations were made:

The Weller Creek Drainage District furnishes drainage for approximately 5,000 acres in the Townships of Maine, Wheeling and Elk Grove, and that construction work of the District included among other things, an open ditch about six miles long, fifteen feet in depth and ten feet wide.

At the time the District was formed, the Village of Arlington Heights did not become a part of the District. After the completion of the District, Arlington Heights desired an outlet for their drainage, and by a court order of August 5, 1929, a perpetual easement was given permitting the use of the District's ditch, for which the District was paid $10,000.00.

The Arlington Park Jockey club, located in the Township of Palatine, and adjoining Arlington Heights, on land sloping mainly to the west, and draining into Salt Creek, entered into agreement with the Village of Arlington Heights on June 5, 1935 for the treatment of sewage from the grounds and premises of the Jockey Club. Under this agreement, the drainage of the area of the Jockey Club would be diverted from its natural flow, and the district's ditch would be required to carry the drainage, sewage and surface water by reason of the connections made or planned between the Jockey Club and the Village of Arlington Heights.

As soon as information was received of this plan, the undersigned communicated with the attorney for the Village of Arlington Heights, who wrote to the undersigned on June 5, 1935, with reference to the contract represented as pending, while in fact the contract had then been made, and within a few days after that date work was done in laying tile for the sewer connection between the Jockey Club premises and the sewer system of the Village of Arlington Heights. On June 8, 1935, the undersigned wrote to the Jockey Club notifying them that they would not be permitted the use of the District's ditch without adequate assessment, and on June 11, 1935, a similar notification was given by letter to the Village of Arlington Heights.

The Jockey Club, during racing season, provides toilet facilities, restaurant and other concession facilities for attendance which runs as high as 25,000 people; the drainage from which would increase the burden of the ditch unreasonably.

Further, during periods of heavy rain, the treatment plant at Arlington Heights would be unable to properly treat the flow, and untold damage would result to the lands adjoining the ditch, which would be subject to overflow, due to the increased burden. The contract between the Jockey Club and the Village of Arlington Heights is represented as being contrary to law, since the privileges under the easement order of the court, of August 5, 1929, do not permit the granting of rights such as are conveyed to the Jockey Club under the contract with Arlington Heights. This contract would subject the District to legal action brought by owners of property in the District, whose drainage facilities would be detrimentally affected or whose property would be subject to damage. The ditch has previously been full to capacity, and has overflowed due to heavy rains in the past, and the increased flow would increase the chance or frequency of such occurrences.

It is further represented on information and belief, that the treatment plant of the Village of Arlington Heights treats sewage to the extent of only 80%, which is at present detrimental to the District, and the amount of untreated sewage would be increased under the contract between the Jockey Club and the Village of Arlington Heights. The complaint for injunction asks for court action to prevent the carrying out of the contract referred to, for the reasons given briefly in the preceding report, and covered in detail and properly presented in the complaint filed with the Superior court as stated. The interests of the property owners assessed by the District will be defended in the further action before the court, to prevent the damage which would result from the carrying out of the contract referred to. The copy of the complaint, with all exhibits filed therewith, including letters sent and received, as stated, and copy of the contract between the Jockey Club and the Village of Arlington Heights, are available to the public in the court records of the proceedings.

Signed WILLIAM KIRCHHOFF, Sole Commissioner, Weller Creek Drainage District. This is a paid adv.

Wayfarers Made Welcome There is an unwritten law among Australian ranchers that every traveler be given a meal and bed, including, of course, the "swagman," or "sundowner"—he who tramps the country looking for work with his belongings in a "swag" on his back and who is provided with a shakedown in the men's quarter or in a shed sometimes erected specially for the purpose. Unhappily guests are inevitable in a continent of distances, but always welcome, according to the Australian Press Bureau.

Jolson Wrecks Scenes Calling Wife "Ruby"

Al Jolson is Ruby Keeler's husband first, after that he's an actor. That explains why, during the filming of the First National picture, "Go Into Your Dance," showing at the Des Plaines Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Al occasionally used wrong dialogue.

Al plays a character named "Al" in the picture, and that made dialogue easy for Ruby. She just had to address him as she always does. Jolson, however, had a problem on his hands.

Ruby is Ruby only so long as she remained behind the cameras. In front of it she was "Dorothy," for that's her name in the picture.

On several occasions Al addressed Ruby by her own name and thus ruined the scene, much to the amusement of the other players on the set and the exasperation of the director.

"This is Hollywood," explained Al, "where a fellow can't even call his wife by her right name!"

Jolson is starred with his wife, Miss Keeler, for the first time in "Go Into Your Dance." First National's latest musical spectacle. Others in the cast include Glenda Farrell, Helen Morgan, Barton MacLane, Benny Rubin, Phil Regan and Gordon Westcott.

Specialty numbers in which scores of chorus beauties dance were created and staged by Jolson with music by J. Warren and Dubin. The screen play is by Earl Baldwin, based on the story by Bradford Ropes.

Rains and Crops Growth Has Lowered May Milk Price; Class 1 is $2.20

With an unusually wet May aiding a heavy seasonal increase in milk production, and thereby depressing the prices of butter and manufactured milk, Class 1 sales also recorded a drop to 51 per cent of basic milk delivered by the Pure Milk Association members as compared with 54 per cent of basic milk delivered in April.

Pure Milk Association members will receive a gross price of $2.20 per hundred pounds for 51 per cent of the established base delivered during the month of May, according to Association officials. This price covers Class 1 fluid milk used by distributors buying from the Pure Milk Association.

A gross price of $1.50 per hundred pounds will be paid on an additional 20 per cent of established base delivered by Association members during May and sold by distributors as cream, manufactured milk, or used in making ice cream, ice cream mix, and Philadelphia or Italian types of cheese. This is the Class II price.

Members will receive United States Government butter fat price for milk delivered in excess of Class I and II milk. The average price for all milk delivered during May is $1.72 per cwt. All prices are f. o. b. country plant or loading platform.

The Evaporated Milk Association has reported an average price of $1.22 for the month of May.

State Legislature Fails to Pass Needed School Legislation

Springfield, Ill., June 19—"The outlook for constructive school legislation appears very dark," says a bulletin just issued by the Illinois State Teachers Association. This statement, summing up the legislative picture, as it applies to school bills, as of June 12, says:

"The regular session of the 59th general assembly is rapidly drawing to a close. Only another week or two are left before adjournment.

The calendars are congested with hundreds of bills. A total of 1,123 house bills and 625 senate bills have been introduced making 1,728 separate units in the list. "Only about 100 bills have been passed during the five months the legislature has been in session with the end extremely close. No school bills of importance have been passed in face of the fact that several were introduced months ago. No action has been taken on the state school appropriation bills.

"The emergency bill to make good the $7,000,000 appropriated but never delivered to the distributive school fund has been held on second reading for weeks. Absolutely nothing has been done to relieve the financial crisis facing many schools, paying unpaid teachers, rehabilitating depleted school equipment, or to assure bankrupt districts that they may open school next September.

"One excuse for the delay in school bills should wait until the educational commission made its report. That commission was appointed by the general assembly, and the governor, in February. Two of its definitely assigned duties were:

"1. To study and make recommendations concerning the financing of public schools and public education.

"2. To report these findings and recommendations to the 59th general assembly.

"Supporters of the bill creating this commission promised that the commission would make its report by May 1. It has not yet reported. The statement has been made on good authority that the only recommendation it will make for emergency relief in an appropriation of approximately $2,733,000 to bring the 101 downstate counties up to the same percentage of the past school fund apportionment as already given to Cook county.

"The irony of this recommendation lies in the fact that the Cross-Gunning bills were introduced on April 16 to do this very thing.

Actions of Pedestrians Resulting in Deaths From Automobile Mishaps

Crossing in middle of block and against signals—34%

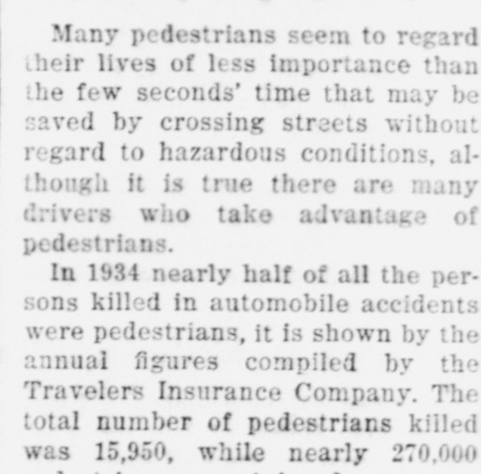

Children playing in street—11%

Walking along road—17%

Coming from behind car—9%

Miscellaneous—29%

Many pedestrians seem to regard their lives of less importance than the few seconds' time that may be saved by crossing streets without regard to hazardous conditions, although it is true there are many drivers who take advantage of pedestrians.

In 1934 nearly half of all the persons killed in automobile accidents were pedestrians, it is shown by the annual figures compiled by the Travelers Insurance Company. The total number of pedestrians killed was 15,950, while nearly 270,000 pedestrians were injured.

Five out of every eight pedestrians killed, it is shown, were involved in accidents while crossing streets in the middle of the block, crossing intersections against signals or diagonally, darting out into streets from behind parked cars, or while walking along rural highways.

It has been pointed out that pedestrians run across streets in the middle of the block or against signals because many feel that little if any more protection is given them when they wait for signals. Many pedestrians know that it is dangerous to walk along rural highways, but since paths or walks have not been provided, the question often is raised, "What else can pedestrians do along rural highways?" Of course it is good advice to walk facing traffic.

Pedestrians may well pause to consider the fact that in 1934 the rate of death per pedestrian accident was 45 per cent worse crossing in the middle of the block than at intersections, and was 74 per cent worse crossing against signals than with signals. At the same time, however, the driver is warned to be tolerant with the pedestrian, since the latter's faults are not crimes punishable by death.

These bills were severely criticized by May 1. It has not yet reported. The statement has been made on good authority that the only recommendation it will make for emergency relief in an appropriation of approximately $2,733,000 to bring the 101 downstate counties up to the same percentage of the past school fund apportionment as already given to Cook county.

Palatine Property Owners Discus Need of Changes in Sewer Treatment Works

If the changes that are asked of Palatine by the Illinois Sanitary Water Board are to be made, the verdict rests with the tax payers of Palatine. There were hardly a score of the latrines at the Palatine municipal building Monday night in response to the call issued by the board.

Carl E. Schwob, assistant sanitary engineer of the State department of public health and C. W. Klassen, acting technical secretary of the Sanitary water board were present.

The stream pollution problem of the metropolitan area, stated Mr. Schwob, is very bad. The state sanitary board has made a survey that included 800 miles of streams. There are 122 major sources of pollution along the Des Plaines river, 84 along Salt creek, 70 along Calumet river and 62 along north branch of the Chicago river. Those guilty include not alone municipalities, but golf courses, schools and institutions.

Following an outline of the general conditions that were discovered by the survey, Mr. Schwob told about conditions found in Palatine. "The present Imhoff system of treatment, if in operation," continued the speaker, "would handle about 700 people. There is about 30 tons of sewage solids deposited each by Palatine into Salt creek."

The history of the efforts of the state board to get action in Palatine starts Dec. 1, 1931, when the first inspection was made. The first letter was sent to the village a year later, at which time the suggestion of a sewer rental charge was made. During the following two years letters from the water board brought the reply from the village that the latter had no funds for the work.

Finally this spring definite proceedings and a formal hearing was held and the order issued by the commission giving the village until July 1 to start some action and April 1, 1936, to have the improvement completed.

Representatives of the state present that evening did not give voice to any threats as to what would happen if Palatine did nothing, other than what the law provides could happen, meaning a judgment of $100 a day and the ultimate payment by court order at some future time.

A representative of the Consoer engineering firm was present and gave an estimate that the cost of the needed improvement would be about $70,000, although no definite figures have yet been made. There could be a grant from the government of 45 per cent or more, dependent upon the financial condition of the municipality.

Local citizens present spoke freely, asked a lot of questions and gave their opinion that at the present time the residents of Palatine could not afford the improvement, either as a special assessment or based upon a yearly rental fee.

The chance that Uncle Sam might consider Palatine sufficiently destitute to either give a hundred per cent grant, or at least 75 per cent was mentioned by some of the speakers.

The first step necessary will be the preparation of definite figures by the engineers; second, the application for Government funds and grant; third passage of ordinance by the village; fourth possible referendum vote by the people.

Mayor Godknecht presided. All the board members were present, but left the discussion to the property owners. Mr. Godknecht repeatedly stated that the village could do nothing, and any action taken depended upon the desire of property owners.

No definite action was taken, but it was understood that the village should make application for a government grant after the figures of the engineer are received.

Palatine Man Finds His "Hoodoo" Corner

Roy LaLonde, of Palatine, will hereafter drive around the street intersections of Grand and North avenues. One evening last week, as he stopped at that corner on account of the red light, a wheel of his car fell off, due to crystallized axle. The next evening, he was again stopped at the same corner on account of the red light and his car was badly damaged by a street car. Roy is not superstitious, but does know that he is not to blame.

Roy LaLonde Entertains Minnesota State Leader

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Nolan, of Gilbert, Minn., spent the week-end at the home of Roy LaLonde. Mr. Nolan is state representative and administration floor leader in the house. He and Mr. LaLonde were boyhood chums.

Auto Injures Boy on Eve of Trip to Greece

Tuder Alexander, 6 years old, of Janesville, N. D., was critically injured last evening at Diversey parkway and Ashland avenue by an automobile driven by Frank Hamann, 60 years old, of Palatine.

The boy and his parents, on their way to visit the father's old home in Greece, arrived in Chicago a few days ago and were visiting relatives at 3234 Southport avenue. During the afternoon Tuder wandered away and the police had been called to search for him shortly before the report of his injury. He was taken to the Children's Memorial hospital.

Palatine Merchants Will Meet Des Plaines Sunday

The Palatine merchants baseball team will engage the Des Plaines team on the former's diamond Sunday, June 23.

The local team has new uniforms due largely to the business men of Palatine. The initial game at Palatine was won by the Merchants who defeated a well balanced Elgin team. After trailing 4-0 into the sixth, Palatine scored six times to gain the margin of victory. Galbeck is on the mound for the Merchants and is still pitching a good brand of ball.

All games are called at 2:30. The diamond is two blocks east of the high school. Support your team.

Petitions Ask For $20,000,000 Increase For State Schools

More than 200,000 petitions asking for an increase in the state school distributive fund from $10,500,000 to $29,702,546 were presented to each branch of the Assembly at Springfield last week. The bills providing for the increase were introduced April 30, by Lottie Holman O'Neill, representative from Du Page county. They are still in the appropriations committee. The administrators recommendation is for the same amount previously appropriated.

Boy Scout News

In spite of threatening and rainy weather a number of scouts and their families visited Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta on the occasion of open house last Sunday and were impressed with the completeness of equipment, beauty of the camp and adequate leadership. Fifteen local leaders also spent last week-end at the camp in the completion of the course of training in troop camping. They will hold a final session Tuesday evening, June 25, at which time certificates will be awarded. Their work has been to study all methods of camping especially the planning, programming and leading troops of boys into individual troop camps that are set up according to the minimum standards of scout camping.

Because of the great National Jamboree to be held in Washington, the last two weeks of August, the summer camping season for Scouts will be somewhat shorter than usual. Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta will operate for six weeks closing on August 4th. Scouts desiring to spend a week or more at camp are urged to register as soon as possible that they may be assured of places in the camp because of the short season and the anticipated large registration. Active in promoting the registration for camp are members of the camp committee of the council which include H. H. Calkins of Barrington, Wm. Eichelmann of Des Plaines, A. C. A. Des Plaines, and J. R. Page of Park Ridge.

The first meeting of the group of local Scouts and leaders who will attend the National Jamboree at Washington, D. C. this fall was held in the Des Plaines city hall. At that time tentative plans were made for the local preliminary encampment, the details of the trip to and from Washington, and the tentative Jamboree program was reviewed. Practically every day announcements of new features in this huge gathering of 90 thousand scouts are received locally, all of which point to an experience of a life time to every scout that attends. Although less than half of the council's quota is filled at the present time there are still a number of Scouts expecting to go that are not yet registered and undoubtedly others that will decide to take advantage of this unusual opportunity to visit the capital city under conditions never before made available to the boys of America.

Among those registered is Edw. Walsh of Troop 23 of Mt. Prospect. The group will be accompanied by Scout Executive C. C. Nims.

Jobs for Scholarship Winners As First Two Receive Degrees

Called to Detroit for a conference with officials of the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild, Albert W. Fischer, 22 years old, of Waukegan, Ill., and Raymond S. Doerr, 23, of Battle Creek, Mich., $5,000 scholarship winners in the initial coach-building competition sponsored by the educational foundation and the first of their select group to finish college, find that jobs await them upon graduation.

WELLER CREEK DISTRICT SEEKS INJUNCTION

the Arlington track, public health would be endangered if an injunction were granted.

The action taken by Drainage Commissioner Kirchhoff, who was represented in the action by Walter W. Weiss, of Mt. Prospect, a member of the law firm of Castle, Osborn, and Weiss of Chicago, was a motion for temporary restraint, until the merits of the case could be heard before the court. The case will proceed in the courts, and will come up for action as soon as it is reached in the regular calendar of the court.

The contention of the attorney for the Weller Creek District was that the Village of Arlington Heights does not have the power to provide service for territory outside their boundaries under the court order of six years ago by which they obtained use of Weller Creek for the discharge from their treatment plant for the payment of $10,000 to the Drainage District. The cost of the work done on Weller Creek by the Drainage District to prepare it for handling the flow of the District area is reported as approximately $800,000.00. Along with Mt. Prospect and a number of other towns, the Arlington track officials had been notified by the state authorities that their sewage disposal system was inadequate and the action taken was to attempt to avoid the construction of a treatment plant at the track. The activity of the state officials is causing a very general study of similar problems throughout the state, as it is apparent that the intention is to stop stream pollution from all courses.

"Neatest Farm" Contest Closes

Although 131 neat farms were entered in the Pure Milk Association's "Neatest Farm" contest by June 17, more entries were expected before the final closing date yesterday.

Wisconsin leads at the present time with 61 farms entered in the contest, Illinois is second with 59 farms entered, while Indiana has 12 entries at the present time.

Some districts are offering prizes to the winning members in their districts, in addition to the "Award of Merit" plaque which is awarded by the Association to the members whose farms receive a rating of 90 per cent or better in the contest.

The purpose of the "Neatest Farm" contest is to call public attention to the fact that all Pure Milk Association dairy farms are neat, clean farms upon which high quality milk is produced every day of the year.

By selecting the "Neatest" of the neat Pure Milk Association farms that enter the contest, the members not only honor the winners of the "Award of Merit" as being outstanding "dairy citizens," but signify to indicate to milk consumers value of cooperative marketing organizations.

'Public Hero No. 1' Comes To Chicago Theater

Some of the most amazing thrills ever photographed are evident in the latest of the Gangster-G-men cycle of motion pictures "Public Hero No. 1," which is due at the Chicago theater on Friday, June 21.

Filming running fights between criminals and secret service operatives at a speed of seventy miles an hour—Driving an automobile thru a flooded river—Building an authentic reproduction of a state penitentiary—Reproducing a face-lifting operation by make-up.

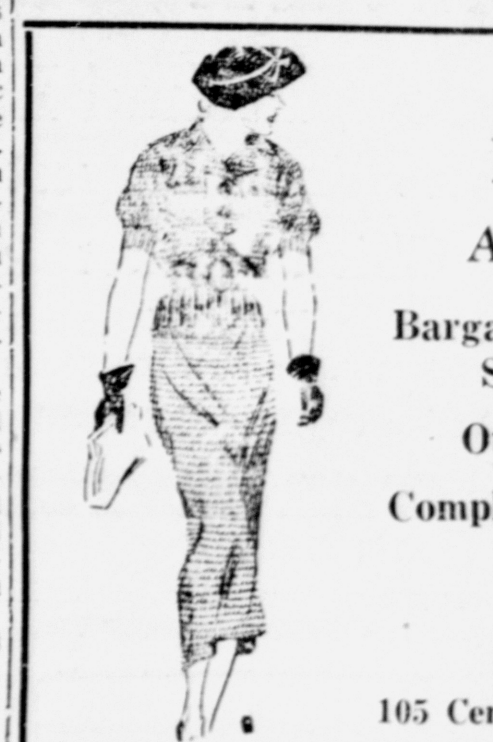

These are just a few of the difficult location and technical details that went into the making of this drama of the governments fight against organized crime. The story, based on actual cases in the files of the department of justice, was filmed with every attention to authenticity.

The cast includes such notables as Lionel Barrymore, Jean Arthur, Chester Morris, Paul Kelly, Lewis Stone and Joseph Calleia.

Enlivening the gala stage production will be those nit-wits of radio Black and Sully of the Columbia broadcasting company's "Big Show."

Mellow Ben Franklin

TIRES MAY LOOK ALIKE ON THE OUTSIDE ON THE INSIDE THEY ARE DIFFERENT

HEAT on the inside created by friction is the main cause of blowouts. Firestone Tires are different on the inside—they are built with the patented extra process of Gum-Dipping that soaks every cord and insulates every strand with pure liquid rubber, preventing internal friction and heat. No other make of tire is Gum-Dipped.

When you realize that there were 882,000 automobile accidents in 1934, injuring 954,000 people and killing 36,000, and that 43,000 of these accidents were caused by blowouts, punctures and skidding, you will be more interested in the make of tires you use on your car.

Firestone performance records again emphasize the undisputed evidence that Firestone Tires are not only blowout-proof, but give greatest protection against skidding. There are three questions and answers that will solve the problem of what tires to buy:

QUESTION 1—"Will the tread give me the greatest traction and protection against skidding?"

ANSWER—Recent tests by a leading University show that Firestone High Speed Non-Skid Tires stop a car 15% quicker than any other of the leading makes. For eight consecutive years Firestone Tires have been on the winning car in the dangerous Pike's Peak Race where a skid means death. This is undisputed evidence that Firestone gives car owners greatest protection against skidding.

QUESTION 2—"Are they blowout-proof?"
ANSWER—Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires have the most amazing records for being blowout-proof of any tires ever built. In the gruelling 500-Mile Race at Indianapolis, May 30th, every one of the 33 cars was equipped with Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires. Kelly Petillo won the race and broke the record over this 26-year-old rough brick track without tire trouble—in fact, not one of the 33 drivers had tire trouble of any kind.

QUESTION 3—"Without sacrificing these two important safety features will they give me longer mileage, thus making them the most economical tires I can buy?"
ANSWER—Firestone High Speed Tires not only give you more than 50% longer wear, but also lowest cost per mile. This is made possible by the tough, wear-resisting tread built with higher shoulders and a wider, flatter contour. This thick, rugged, scientifically designed tread is held securely to the Gum-Dipped cord body by Firestone's patented construction of two extra layers of cords under the tread. This is a special construction feature not used in any other tire. Unequaled mileage records by thousands of car owners add undisputed evidence of the longer wear and greater economy of Firestone High Speed Tires.
